

TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF USE

Effective Date: July 10, 2026

These Terms and Conditions ("Terms") constitute a legally binding agreement between GOPRYME FINTECH PRIVATE LIMITED, a company incorporated under the provisions of the Companies Act, 2013, bearing Corporate Identification Number (CIN) U70200MP2026PTC081776, having its registered office at 204, Ranjeet Hanuman Main Road, Near BATA Showroom, Mhow Naka, Indore, Madhya Pradesh, India (hereinafter referred to as "PRYME", "Company", "we", "our" or "us"), and every individual who accesses, browses, registers on, or otherwise uses the website www.prymeloans.in, any associated mobile application, software, application programming interfaces (APIs), digital interfaces, communication channels, products, services, tools, features, or any other platform operated by the Company (collectively referred to as the "Platform").

These Terms govern your access to and use of the Platform and set out the rights, obligations, responsibilities, limitations, and legal relationship between you and PRYME. They are intended to ensure transparency, fairness, regulatory compliance, and responsible use of the Platform.

By accessing or using the Platform in any manner whatsoever, including but not limited to browsing information, comparing financial products, creating an account, submitting information, uploading documents, requesting eligibility assessment, initiating a loan application, communicating with PRYME, or availing any service made available through the Platform, you expressly acknowledge that you have carefully read, understood, and agreed to be legally bound by these Terms, together with the Company's Privacy Policy, Cookie Policy, Disclaimer, and any other policy, guideline, or legal notice published by PRYME from time to time.

If you do not agree to these Terms, either in whole or in part, you must immediately discontinue accessing or using the Platform.

PART 1 DEFINITIONS AND INTERPRETATION

Unless the context otherwise requires, the following words and expressions shall have the meanings assigned to them below. Words importing the singular shall include the plural and vice versa, words importing one gender shall include all genders, and references to persons shall include individuals, partnerships, companies, bodies corporate, associations, trusts, government authorities, and other legal entities wherever the context permits.

1.1 "Account"

Means the unique user profile created on the Platform after successful registration for the purpose of applying for financial products, tracking applications, communicating with PRYME, accessing personalised services, or using features that require authentication.

1.2 "Applicable Law"

Means all laws, statutes, rules, regulations, notifications, circulars, directions, judicial decisions, governmental orders, regulatory guidelines, and other legally enforceable requirements applicable within the Republic of India, including any amendments or re-enactments thereof from time to time.

1.3 "Application"

Means any request, enquiry, expression of interest, or submission made by a User through the Platform for obtaining a loan or any other financial product from a participating financial institution.

1.4 "Bank"

Means any banking company licensed to carry on banking business in India under applicable law and participating on the Platform from time to time.

1.5 "Business Day"

Means any day other than a Saturday, Sunday, or a day on which banks are officially closed for business in the jurisdiction relevant to the transaction.

1.6 "Company"

Means GOPRYME FINTECH PRIVATE LIMITED, its successors, permitted assigns, affiliates, subsidiaries (if any), employees, directors, officers, authorised representatives, agents, consultants, and service providers acting on its behalf.

1.7 "Content"

Means all text, graphics, logos, icons, illustrations, images, videos, audio, software, algorithms, user interfaces, layouts, databases, documentation, reports, calculations, educational material, blog articles, downloadable resources, and all other information made available on or through the Platform.

1.8 "Eligibility Estimate"

Means the indicative assessment generated through the Platform based on the information provided by the User, proprietary methodologies, lender policies available to PRYME, and other relevant parameters. An Eligibility Estimate is solely informational in nature and shall not be interpreted as a loan approval, sanction, commitment, guarantee, or promise by PRYME or by any participating lender.

1.9 "Financial Institution"

Means any scheduled commercial bank, cooperative bank, Non-Banking Financial Company (NBFC), housing finance company, or any other regulated entity legally authorised to offer financial products in India and participating on the Platform.

1.10 "Loan"

Means any credit facility, including but not limited to personal loans, home loans, business loans, loans against property, education loans, vehicle loans, gold loans, or any other lending product made available by participating financial institutions through or in connection with the Platform.

1.11 "Platform"

Means the website www.prymeloans.in, any associated mobile applications, software, dashboards, digital interfaces, communication channels, APIs, tools, calculators, eligibility engines, customer support systems, and all related products and services owned, operated, or made available by PRYME.

1.12 "Participating Lender"

Means any bank, NBFC, housing finance company, financial institution, or other regulated lender that has agreed to receive applications, enquiries, or customer referrals through the Platform.

1.13 "Services"

Means all services provided by PRYME from time to time, including but not limited to financial product comparison, eligibility estimation, loan application facilitation, document coordination, customer support, educational content, post-disbursal assistance, future AI-enabled services, and any additional services introduced by the Company.

1.14 "User", "You", or "Your"

Means any individual who accesses, visits, browses, registers on, or otherwise uses the Platform, irrespective of whether such individual creates an Account or completes a financial product application.

1.15 Interpretation

Unless expressly stated otherwise:

- (a) headings are inserted solely for convenience and shall not affect interpretation;
- (b) references to any law shall include all amendments, modifications, substitutions, re-enactments, and successor legislation;
- (c) references to any document shall include amendments, supplements, replacements, or revised versions thereof;
- (d) the words "including", "such as", and similar expressions shall be deemed to mean "including, without limitation";
- (e) references to one gender shall include every other gender, and references to the singular shall include the plural where the context so requires;
- (f) any ambiguity shall not be interpreted against either party merely because one party drafted these Terms.

PART 2

ABOUT PRYME, NATURE OF THE PLATFORM, AND SCOPE OF SERVICES

2.1 About PRYME

PRYME is a technology-enabled financial services platform owned and operated by GOPRYME FINTECH PRIVATE LIMITED. The Platform has been developed with the objective of simplifying the process of discovering, comparing, understanding, and applying for financial products offered by participating banks, Non-Banking Financial Companies ("NBFCs"), housing finance companies, and other regulated financial institutions.

The Company leverages technology, structured data, proprietary eligibility methodologies, and customer support services to assist users in making more informed financial decisions. PRYME seeks to improve transparency by enabling users to compare available financial products, understand indicative eligibility, and navigate the application process through a single digital platform.

The Company's guiding principles are transparency, clarity, and security, and these principles govern the manner in which the Platform and its services are designed and delivered.

2.2 Nature of the Platform

The User expressly acknowledges and agrees that PRYME is solely a technology platform and facilitation service.

The Platform has been developed to enable users to access information relating to financial products, evaluate indicative eligibility, compare available options, submit loan applications to participating lenders, coordinate documentation, and receive customer support during various stages of the application journey.

At no point shall PRYME be construed as:

- (a) a bank;
- (b) a Non-Banking Financial Company (NBFC);
- (c) a housing finance company;
- (d) a money lender;
- (e) a credit provider;
- (f) a financial institution accepting deposits;
- (g) a guarantor of any financial product;
- (h) an insurer;
- (i) an investment adviser;
- (j) a financial adviser providing personalised financial advice; or
- (k) an authorised representative empowered to approve or reject loan applications on behalf of any lender.

Nothing contained on the Platform shall create or be interpreted as creating a lender-borrower relationship between PRYME and any User.

2.3 Independent Lending Decisions

All lending decisions remain solely within the discretion of the respective participating lender. Without limitation, the participating lender alone shall determine:

- (a) whether an application is accepted or rejected;
- (b) the amount of credit to be sanctioned;
- (c) the applicable interest rate;
- (d) the repayment tenure;
- (e) processing fees and other charges;
- (f) collateral or security requirements;
- (g) documentation requirements;
- (h) repayment schedules;
- (i) conditions precedent to disbursement;
- (j) post-disbursal servicing; and
- (k) any modification, restructuring, cancellation, or recall of the facility.

PRYME neither participates in nor influences these commercial or credit decisions.

2.4 No Representation of Participating Lenders

Unless expressly stated in writing, PRYME does not represent, act as an agent of, or possess authority to legally bind any participating lender.

The availability of a lender or financial product on the Platform shall not be interpreted as:

- (a) an endorsement by PRYME;
- (b) a guarantee regarding the quality of services offered by that lender;
- (c) a representation that the lender will approve a particular application; or
- (d) a warranty that the lender's terms shall remain unchanged.

Each participating lender remains independently responsible for its own products, underwriting policies, contractual documentation, customer servicing, and regulatory compliance.

2.5 Scope of Services

Subject to availability and applicable law, PRYME may provide one or more of the following services:

- (a) comparison of financial products;
- (b) indicative eligibility assessment;
- (c) loan discovery services;
- (d) loan application facilitation;
- (e) document collection and preliminary verification;
- (f) customer support before, during, and after loan disbursal;
- (g) educational financial content;
- (h) calculators and decision-support tools;
- (i) notifications regarding application progress;
- (j) customer communication through approved channels;
- (k) promotional programmes, rewards, cashback, or referral initiatives; and
- (l) any additional technology-enabled services introduced by the Company from time to time.

The Company reserves the absolute right to modify, discontinue, expand, restrict, suspend, or replace any feature or service without prior notice where reasonably necessary.

2.6 Eligibility Estimation

The Platform may provide Users with an indicative assessment of their potential eligibility for one or more financial products.

Such assessment may be generated using, among other things:

- (a) information provided by the User;
- (b) publicly available lender policies;
- (c) proprietary algorithms;
- (d) internally developed scoring methodologies;
- (e) banking-related information, where authorised;
- (f) employment information;
- (g) business information;
- (h) credit-related parameters where expressly consented to by the User;
- (i) historical lending criteria available to PRYME; and
- (j) any other lawful parameter considered relevant by the Platform.

Users expressly acknowledge that such assessments are indicative only.

2.7 No Guarantee of Approval

An Eligibility Estimate shall not constitute:

- (a) a loan sanction;
- (b) a loan approval;
- (c) a pre-approved offer;
- (d) a commitment to lend;
- (e) an obligation upon any participating lender;
- (f) a guarantee of interest rates;
- (g) a guarantee of processing timelines;
- (h) a guarantee of loan amount;
- (i) a guarantee of loan tenure; or
- (j) a guarantee of eventual disbursal.

A lender may approve, reject, or modify any application irrespective of the indicative information displayed by the Platform.

Similarly, a lender may, based upon its own commercial assessment, offer more favourable terms than those indicated on the Platform.

2.8 Accuracy of Information Displayed

PRYME endeavours to ensure that the information made available on the Platform is accurate, relevant, and updated at regular intervals.

However, financial products, eligibility criteria, lending policies, interest rates, processing charges, documentation requirements, repayment structures, promotional schemes, and other commercial terms are determined exclusively by participating lenders and may change without prior notice.

Accordingly, PRYME does not warrant that every item of information displayed on the Platform will always reflect the most recent lender policy at any given moment.

Users are encouraged to carefully review the final sanction letter and loan documentation issued by the lender before accepting any financial product.

2.9 Customer Support

PRYME may provide customer support before, during, and after loan disbursement in order to assist Users in understanding application requirements, documentation processes, status updates, or other procedural matters.

Such support is provided on a best-effort basis and shall not create any fiduciary duty, legal representation, or contractual obligation on the part of PRYME to guarantee any particular outcome.

Following disbursement of a loan, issues relating to repayment, foreclosure, prepayment, penalties, account statements, interest computation, restructuring, settlement, or recovery proceedings shall remain matters exclusively between the User and the respective lender.

PRYME may, at its discretion, assist in coordinating communication between the parties but shall not assume responsibility for resolving disputes arising from the contractual relationship between the User and the lender.

2.10 Future Services

The User acknowledges that PRYME may, from time to time, introduce new products, services, technologies, or business verticals, including but not limited to insurance products, credit cards, fixed deposits, investment products, wealth management solutions, Account Aggregator integrations, artificial intelligence-based financial assistants, financial planning tools, educational services, or any other lawful financial technology offerings.

The introduction, suspension, withdrawal, or modification of any such services shall not affect the validity or enforceability of these Terms unless expressly stated otherwise.

Certain future services may be governed by separate terms, product-specific agreements, or additional disclosures, which shall form an integral part of the contractual relationship between the User and PRYME upon acceptance.

2.11 User Acknowledgement

By continuing to use the Platform, the User expressly acknowledges and agrees that:

- (a) PRYME is solely a technology-enabled facilitation platform;
- (b) all lending decisions are made independently by participating financial institutions;
- (c) PRYME does not guarantee approval, sanction, disbursement, interest rates, or any commercial terms;
- (d) any Eligibility Estimate provided by the Platform is indicative and informational only;
- (e) the User remains solely responsible for evaluating the suitability of any financial product before proceeding with an application; and
- (f) the final contractual relationship for any financial product exists exclusively between the User and the participating lender, subject to the lender's terms and applicable law.

PART 3

ELIGIBILITY TO USE THE PLATFORM, USER REGISTRATION, ACCOUNT MANAGEMENT, AND IDENTITY VERIFICATION

3.1 Eligibility to Access the Platform

Access to the Platform is available only to individuals who satisfy the eligibility requirements prescribed under these Terms and applicable laws of India.

By accessing or using the Platform, the User represents and warrants that:

- (a) the User is at least eighteen (18) years of age;
- (b) the User is competent to enter into a legally binding contract in accordance with the provisions of the Indian Contract Act, 1872;
- (c) the User is an Indian resident legally eligible to apply for financial products available through the Platform;
- (d) the User has not previously been suspended or prohibited from using the Platform by PRYME;
- (e) all information submitted to PRYME is true, complete, accurate, and capable of independent verification; and
- (f) the User shall comply with these Terms and all applicable laws, regulations, governmental directions, and regulatory requirements while using the Platform.

If, at any time, PRYME determines that a User no longer satisfies the eligibility criteria prescribed under these Terms, PRYME reserves the right to suspend, restrict, or terminate access to the Platform without prior notice.

3.2 Guest Access

PRYME permits Users to access certain portions of the Platform without creating an Account.

A User may, without registration:

- (a) browse the Platform;
- (b) explore financial products;
- (c) compare available loan options;
- (d) review educational material;
- (e) understand indicative product features;
- (f) access publicly available calculators or informational tools; and
- (g) use any other functionality specifically designated as publicly accessible.

Guest access does not create any contractual obligation on the part of PRYME to provide personalised services, eligibility assessments requiring authentication, application tracking, or lender-specific processing.

PRYME reserves the right to modify, restrict, or discontinue guest access features at any time.

3.3 Requirement for Registration

Registration becomes mandatory when a User elects to proceed with a loan application or wishes to access features requiring authentication, personalised services, document submission, application tracking, or communication with participating lenders.

Creation of an Account constitutes the User's confirmation that all information submitted during registration is accurate and complete.

The User further agrees to promptly update any information that becomes inaccurate or outdated. Failure to maintain accurate information may result in interruption of services, delays in processing, inaccurate eligibility assessments, rejection of applications by participating lenders, suspension of the Account, or any combination thereof.

3.4 Registration Information

During registration, PRYME may request information including, but not limited to:

- (a) full name;
- (b) mobile number;
- (c) email address;
- (d) date of birth;
- (e) residential address;
- (f) employment information;
- (g) business information;
- (h) income details;
- (i) identity information;
- (j) loan requirements;
- (k) financial information relevant to eligibility assessment; and
- (l) any additional information reasonably required for providing the Services.

The information requested may vary depending upon the financial product selected, regulatory requirements, participating lender requirements, technological developments, or changes in applicable law.

3.5 Verification of Contact Details

PRYME may verify the authenticity of the User's mobile number, email address, or other contact details through OTP verification, verification links, authentication codes, or any other verification mechanism considered appropriate.

The User agrees that successful verification is a prerequisite for accessing certain Services.

PRYME reserves the right to refuse registration where verification cannot be successfully completed.

3.6 One Account Policy

Each User shall be entitled to maintain only one active Account on the Platform unless expressly authorised by PRYME in writing.

Creation or operation of multiple Accounts for the purpose of obtaining unfair advantages, manipulating promotional programmes, misleading lenders, circumventing Platform restrictions, or engaging in fraudulent activities shall constitute a material breach of these Terms.

PRYME reserves the right to merge, suspend, restrict, or permanently terminate duplicate Accounts without prior notice.

3.7 User Credentials and Account Security

The User shall be solely responsible for maintaining the confidentiality of all authentication credentials associated with the Account, including passwords, one-time passwords (OTPs), authentication codes, and security questions.

The User agrees:

- (a) not to disclose login credentials to any third party;
- (b) not to permit any other individual to access the Account;
- (c) to immediately notify PRYME of any suspected unauthorised access;
- (d) to log out after each session where appropriate; and
- (e) to exercise reasonable care to prevent misuse of the Account.

Until PRYME receives written notification of unauthorised access, all activity occurring through the Account shall be deemed to have been authorised by the User.

3.8 Changes to Registered Information

Users may request changes to their registered mobile number, email address, or other profile information through procedures prescribed by PRYME.

PRYME may require fresh verification before implementing such changes.

The Company reserves the right to refuse any requested modification where there is reasonable suspicion of fraud, identity theft, ongoing investigation, regulatory restriction, or any other circumstance requiring additional verification.

3.9 Identity Verification

In order to facilitate loan applications and comply with lender requirements, PRYME may request the submission of identity documents, address proof, income documents, business records, property documents, banking information, taxation records, or any other documentation relevant to the selected financial product.

The User represents and warrants that every document submitted through the Platform:

- (a) is genuine;
- (b) belongs to the User or has been lawfully provided;
- (c) has not been altered, manipulated, fabricated, or forged;
- (d) accurately reflects the information represented; and
- (e) may be verified by PRYME and participating lenders.

Submission of fraudulent documentation shall constitute a material breach of these Terms and may result in rejection of the application, suspension or termination of the Account, reporting to participating lenders, and initiation of appropriate civil or criminal proceedings.

3.10 Preliminary Verification by PRYME

Prior to forwarding documentation to a participating lender, PRYME may conduct preliminary verification for completeness, consistency, and apparent authenticity.

Such verification is undertaken solely to facilitate processing and improve the quality of applications submitted through the Platform.

Preliminary verification by PRYME shall not be interpreted as certification of authenticity, approval of the application, or acceptance of the User's representations.

Participating lenders shall remain solely responsible for conducting their own independent due diligence and verification.

3.11 Right to Refuse Registration

PRYME reserves the absolute right to refuse, suspend, restrict, or terminate registration where it reasonably believes that:

- (a) false information has been submitted;
- (b) fraudulent documents have been uploaded;
- (c) the User has violated these Terms;
- (d) continued access may expose PRYME or participating lenders to legal, financial, operational, cybersecurity, regulatory, or reputational risk;
- (e) registration would violate applicable law or regulatory directions; or
- (f) any other circumstance exists that, in PRYME's reasonable opinion, justifies such action.

PRYME shall not be obligated to disclose the internal basis of its fraud detection systems, risk assessment methodologies, or security measures while exercising its rights under this Clause.

3.12 Account Deletion

Users may request deletion of their Account through the procedures prescribed by PRYME.

Where a loan application is pending, under review, approved, awaiting documentation, awaiting disbursement, or otherwise in progress, PRYME may defer deletion until the relevant application has been completed, withdrawn, cancelled, or otherwise closed.

Following successful processing of the deletion request:

- (a) the User's access to the Account shall be disabled;
- (b) downloadable personal data shall remain available for up to thirty (30) days where technically feasible;
- (c) PRYME may retain records where required by applicable law, regulatory requirements, fraud prevention obligations, audit requirements, dispute resolution, taxation, or legitimate business purposes; and
- (d) continued retention of such records shall not be construed as continued operation of the deleted Account.

3.13 Survival of Obligations

Deletion, suspension, or termination of an Account shall not affect any rights, obligations, liabilities, indemnities, warranties, confidentiality obligations, dispute resolution provisions, intellectual property protections, or other clauses which, by their nature, are intended to survive termination of these Terms.

PART 4

USER REPRESENTATIONS, WARRANTIES, OBLIGATIONS, AND PROHIBITED CONDUCT

4.1 User Representations and Warranties

By accessing or using the Platform, the User hereby represents, warrants, and undertakes that:

- (a) all information, declarations, statements, documents, and records submitted to PRYME are true, accurate, complete, current, and not misleading in any respect;
- (b) the User possesses the legal authority and capacity to submit such information and documents to PRYME;
- (c) the User shall immediately notify PRYME if any material information previously submitted becomes inaccurate, incomplete, or outdated;
- (d) the User is accessing the Platform solely for lawful purposes and shall not use the Platform for any activity prohibited under these Terms or applicable law;
- (e) the User shall not knowingly make any false declaration for the purpose of obtaining a financial advantage or influencing an eligibility assessment or lending decision;
- (f) where information relating to another individual is submitted, the User has obtained all necessary permissions and lawful authority to disclose such information;
- (g) the User understands that participating lenders may independently verify the information and documents submitted through the Platform; and
- (h) the User acknowledges that any breach of the above representations may result in suspension of services, termination of the Account, rejection of applications, reporting to participating lenders, and legal proceedings where appropriate.

4.2 Accuracy and Completeness of Information

The quality and reliability of the Services provided by PRYME depend upon the accuracy of information supplied by the User.

Accordingly, the User agrees that all personal, financial, employment, business, banking, taxation, property, and other information submitted through the Platform shall be complete and truthful.

PRYME shall not be responsible for any incorrect Eligibility Estimate, recommendation, lender response, processing delay, rejection, or other consequence arising directly or indirectly from inaccurate, incomplete, misleading, outdated, or false information provided by the User.

4.3 Continuous Obligation to Update Information

The User acknowledges that financial circumstances may change after registration or submission of an application.

Accordingly, the User agrees to promptly update PRYME whenever there is a material change in any information previously submitted, including but not limited to:

- (a) employment status;
- (b) employer;
- (c) income;
- (d) business turnover;
- (e) GST registration status;
- (f) residential address;
- (g) contact details;
- (h) banking information;

- (i) existing loan obligations;
- (j) property ownership details; or
- (k) any other information reasonably relevant to the Services.

Failure to provide updated information may affect the accuracy of eligibility assessments and may result in delays or rejection by participating lenders.

4.4 Lawful Use of the Platform

The User agrees to use the Platform only for legitimate personal purposes relating to the discovery, comparison, assessment, and application of financial products.

The User shall not use the Platform for any unlawful, fraudulent, malicious, commercial, competitive, or unauthorised purpose.

Nothing contained on the Platform shall be interpreted as granting the User any ownership or unrestricted right to use the Company's technology, systems, databases, algorithms, software, or intellectual property.

4.5 Prohibited Conduct

Without limiting the generality of these Terms, the User shall not:

- (a) submit forged, fabricated, altered, manipulated, or misleading documents;
- (b) impersonate another individual or entity;
- (c) create or operate multiple Accounts without authorisation;
- (d) misrepresent identity, employment, income, assets, liabilities, business turnover, GST details, banking information, or credit history;
- (e) attempt to obtain financial products through deception or fraudulent means;
- (f) interfere with the operation, security, stability, or functionality of the Platform;
- (g) introduce malware, viruses, ransomware, spyware, malicious code, or any harmful software;
- (h) gain or attempt to gain unauthorised access to any account, database, server, network, or system associated with PRYME;
- (i) attempt to reverse engineer, decompile, disassemble, decode, or otherwise derive the source code, algorithms, models, or technical architecture of the Platform except where expressly permitted by applicable law;
- (j) use robots, automated scripts, crawlers, bots, scraping tools, artificial traffic generators, or similar technologies to access or extract information from the Platform without prior written consent;
- (k) conduct penetration testing, vulnerability scanning, or security assessments without the Company's prior written authorisation;
- (l) interfere with another User's access to or use of the Platform;
- (m) misuse any promotional programme, cashback scheme, referral initiative, or reward mechanism;
- (n) upload content that is unlawful, defamatory, obscene, abusive, discriminatory, hateful, threatening, or otherwise objectionable;
- (o) use the Platform in a manner that infringes the intellectual property or proprietary rights of PRYME or any third party;
- (p) knowingly assist, encourage, facilitate, or enable another person to commit any prohibited activity described in these Terms; or
- (q) engage in any conduct that, in PRYME's reasonable opinion, exposes the Company, participating lenders, Users, or third parties to legal, financial, operational, cybersecurity, regulatory, or reputational risk.

4.6 Fraud Prevention

PRYME maintains internal fraud detection and risk management procedures to protect Users, participating lenders, and the integrity of the Platform.

Where PRYME reasonably suspects fraudulent activity, identity theft, document manipulation, money laundering, unauthorised access, account compromise, regulatory non-compliance, or any other suspicious activity, PRYME may, without prejudice to any other rights available under law:

- (a) temporarily suspend processing of an application;
- (b) request additional information or documentation;
- (c) conduct enhanced verification procedures;
- (d) suspend or restrict the User's Account;
- (e) refuse to facilitate the application;
- (f) notify the relevant participating lender;
- (g) cooperate with law enforcement agencies, regulators, governmental authorities, or judicial bodies where legally required; and
- (h) initiate appropriate civil or criminal proceedings where warranted.

The User acknowledges that PRYME shall not be obligated to disclose the internal criteria, algorithms, or security measures used for fraud detection or risk assessment.

4.7 User Responsibility for Documents

The User shall remain solely responsible for every document uploaded or submitted through the Platform.

The User expressly warrants that each document:

- (a) is genuine and authentic;
- (b) has not been altered except for lawful redactions where permitted;
- (c) accurately represents the underlying facts;
- (d) belongs to the User or has been lawfully obtained and submitted with appropriate authority; and
- (e) may be verified by PRYME, participating lenders, or authorised third parties.

Submission of false or fraudulent documentation may result in immediate rejection of the application and any other action available under these Terms or applicable law.

4.8 Compliance with Applicable Laws

The User agrees to comply at all times with all applicable laws, regulations, governmental notifications, and regulatory directions while accessing or using the Platform.

Nothing contained in these Terms shall be interpreted as permitting any activity prohibited under applicable law.

4.9 Duty to Cooperate

The User agrees to reasonably cooperate with PRYME during registration, verification, application processing, post-submission clarification, dispute resolution, fraud investigations, and any lawful compliance process.

Failure to cooperate may result in delays, suspension of services, or closure of the relevant application where such cooperation is reasonably necessary.

4.10 Consequences of Breach

Without prejudice to any other rights or remedies available under these Terms or applicable law, PRYME may, upon determining that a User has breached this Article:

- (a) issue a warning;
- (b) temporarily suspend specific Platform features;
- (c) suspend or terminate the User's Account;
- (d) reject or discontinue processing of any application;
- (e) cancel eligibility assessments or promotional benefits;
- (f) permanently prohibit future use of the Platform;
- (g) report the matter to participating lenders or competent authorities where legally appropriate;
- (h) seek recovery of losses, damages, investigation costs, legal expenses, or other amounts arising from the User's misconduct; and
- (i) pursue any other civil, criminal, contractual, or equitable remedy available under applicable law.

The rights and remedies provided under this Article are cumulative and shall not exclude any other rights or remedies available to PRYME under these Terms or applicable law.

PART 5

ELIGIBILITY ASSESSMENT, LOAN COMPARISON, APPLICATION FACILITATION, AND RELATIONSHIP WITH PARTICIPATING LENDERS

5.1 Purpose of the Services

The Platform has been developed to enable Users to make more informed financial decisions by providing access to financial product information, indicative eligibility assessments, product comparisons, application facilitation, and customer support throughout various stages of the borrowing journey.

The Services are intended to improve accessibility, transparency, and efficiency in the loan application process by reducing the need for Users to independently approach multiple financial institutions for preliminary assessment.

The User acknowledges that the Services are technology-enabled facilitation services only and do not constitute lending, underwriting, financial advisory, investment advisory, or credit decision-making services.

5.2 Loan Comparison Services

PRYME may provide comparisons of financial products offered by participating lenders. Such comparisons may include information relating to, among other things:

- (a) indicative interest rates;
- (b) loan amounts;
- (c) repayment tenure;
- (d) eligibility criteria;
- (e) processing fees;
- (f) documentation requirements;
- (g) repayment options;
- (h) special lender programmes;
- (i) product features;
- (j) promotional offers; and
- (k) any other information considered relevant by PRYME.

The User acknowledges that such information is compiled from lender communications, publicly available information, product documentation, and other reliable sources available to PRYME.

Despite reasonable efforts to maintain accuracy, participating lenders may revise, withdraw, suspend, or replace product features at any time without prior notice.

Accordingly, PRYME does not warrant that any comparison displayed on the Platform will always reflect the latest commercial terms offered by a participating lender.

5.3 Eligibility Assessment

The Platform may generate an indicative Eligibility Estimate using proprietary methodologies developed by PRYME together with information provided by the User and lending policies available to the Company.

Depending upon the selected financial product, such assessment may consider factors including:

- (a) age;
- (b) residential profile;
- (c) employment details;
- (d) employer category;
- (e) income;
- (f) business turnover;
- (g) GST-related information;
- (h) banking behaviour;
- (i) existing financial obligations;
- (j) repayment capacity;
- (k) property-related information;
- (l) declared loan purpose;
- (m) credit-related information where expressly authorised by the User;
- (n) lender-specific policies available to PRYME; and
- (o) other lawful parameters considered relevant to the assessment.

The methodology used by PRYME constitutes proprietary intellectual property and may be modified from time to time without prior notice.

Nothing contained in these Terms shall require PRYME to disclose the internal logic, algorithms, weightages, scoring mechanisms, or proprietary methodologies used for generating Eligibility Estimates.

5.4 Nature of Eligibility Estimates

The User expressly understands and agrees that every Eligibility Estimate displayed on the Platform is indicative only.

An Eligibility Estimate shall not constitute:

- (a) a loan approval;
- (b) a sanction letter;
- (c) a commitment to lend;
- (d) a binding financial offer;
- (e) a guarantee of approval;
- (f) a guarantee of interest rates;
- (g) a guarantee of loan amount;
- (h) a guarantee of repayment tenure;
- (i) a guarantee of processing timelines; or
- (j) a guarantee of loan disbursement.

The Eligibility Estimate is intended solely to assist Users in evaluating potential options before deciding whether to proceed with a loan application.

5.5 Independent Assessment by Participating Lenders

Every participating lender maintains independent underwriting policies, internal risk models, regulatory obligations, and commercial criteria.

Accordingly, each participating lender may independently:

- (a) verify the information submitted by the User;
- (b) request additional documents;
- (c) conduct field investigations;
- (d) perform employment verification;
- (e) verify business information;
- (f) obtain credit bureau reports where authorised;
- (g) conduct property valuation;
- (h) perform legal due diligence;
- (i) modify commercial terms; or
- (j) reject an application notwithstanding the Eligibility Estimate displayed by the Platform.

The User acknowledges that such actions remain entirely outside the control of PRYME.

5.6 Variations in Commercial Terms

The User acknowledges that the commercial terms ultimately offered by a participating lender may differ from those displayed on the Platform.

Without limitation, a participating lender may determine:

- (a) a different interest rate;
- (b) a different sanctioned amount;
- (c) a different repayment tenure;
- (d) revised documentation requirements;
- (e) revised processing fees;
- (f) additional conditions precedent;
- (g) collateral requirements;
- (h) guarantor requirements; or
- (i) any other contractual condition considered appropriate by that lender.

Conversely, a lender may also offer more favourable commercial terms than those indicated by the Platform based upon its own internal assessment, customer relationship, promotional campaigns, or commercial discretion.

PRYME shall not be liable for any such variation.

5.7 Loan Application Facilitation

Where a User elects to proceed with a loan application through the Platform, PRYME may facilitate the application process by:

- (a) collecting required information;
- (b) assisting in document submission;
- (c) conducting preliminary verification;
- (d) coordinating with participating lenders;
- (e) communicating application updates;
- (f) responding to procedural queries;
- (g) assisting with additional documentation requests; and
- (h) providing reasonable customer support before and after loan disbursement.

Such facilitation services are administrative and technological in nature and shall not be interpreted as assuming responsibility for any lending decision.

5.8 Preliminary Document Review

PRYME may review documents submitted by the User for completeness, apparent consistency, readability, and basic authenticity before forwarding them to a participating lender.

Such review is intended solely to improve processing efficiency and reduce avoidable delays.

The User acknowledges that:

- (a) PRYME does not certify the authenticity of any document;
- (b) PRYME does not guarantee that documents will satisfy lender requirements;
- (c) participating lenders shall independently verify every document according to their own policies; and
- (d) preliminary review by PRYME shall not prejudice or influence any subsequent verification undertaken by a participating lender.

5.9 Customer Support

PRYME may provide support throughout various stages of the customer journey, including:

- (a) registration;
- (b) eligibility assessment;
- (c) document collection;
- (d) application submission;
- (e) communication with participating lenders;
- (f) application tracking;
- (g) clarification regarding procedural requirements;
- (h) coordination during disbursal; and
- (i) reasonable post-disbursal assistance.

The User acknowledges that such support is provided on a best-effort basis and does not create any fiduciary duty or legal obligation requiring PRYME to secure a particular outcome.

5.10 Matters Remaining Between the User and the Lender

Following submission of a loan application, the contractual relationship concerning the financial product exists exclusively between the User and the participating lender.

Without limitation, matters relating to:

- (a) loan sanction;
- (b) loan rejection;
- (c) loan documentation;
- (d) execution of agreements;
- (e) disbursal;
- (f) EMI collection;
- (g) repayment schedules;
- (h) foreclosure;
- (i) prepayment;
- (j) penal charges;
- (k) restructuring;
- (l) recovery proceedings;
- (m) settlement; and
- (n) closure of the loan account,

shall remain the responsibility of the participating lender and the User.

PRYME may assist in facilitating communication where reasonably possible but shall not assume responsibility for obligations arising under the loan agreement.

5.11 No Guarantee of Processing Time

Although PRYME endeavours to facilitate efficient processing, the Company does not guarantee any specific timeline for:

- (a) application review;
- (b) document verification;
- (c) lender response;
- (d) sanction;
- (e) execution of documentation;
- (f) disbursal; or
- (g) post-disbursal servicing.

Processing timelines depend upon numerous factors beyond PRYME's control, including lender policies, regulatory requirements, completeness of documentation, verification outcomes, and the User's responsiveness.

5.12 Right to Refuse Facilitation

PRYME reserves the right, at its sole discretion, to decline or discontinue facilitation of any application where it reasonably believes that:

- (a) information provided is false or misleading;
- (b) documents appear forged or manipulated;
- (c) fraudulent activity is suspected;
- (d) applicable laws or regulatory requirements may be violated;
- (e) continued processing may expose PRYME or participating lenders to legal, operational, financial, cybersecurity, or reputational risk; or
- (f) any other circumstance exists that reasonably justifies refusal.

Such refusal shall not be construed as a lending decision or as an assessment of the User's creditworthiness.

5.13 No Financial or Legal Advice

Information, comparisons, educational content, calculators, recommendations, and Eligibility Estimates made available through the Platform are provided solely for informational purposes. Nothing contained on the Platform shall constitute financial advice, legal advice, tax advice, investment advice, accounting advice, or any other professional advice.

Users are encouraged to independently evaluate the suitability of any financial product and, where appropriate, seek advice from qualified professionals before making financial decisions.

5.14 User Acknowledgement

By proceeding with any application through the Platform, the User expressly acknowledges and agrees that:

- (a) PRYME functions solely as a technology-enabled facilitation platform;
- (b) PRYME does not influence or control lending decisions;
- (c) all approvals, rejections, and commercial terms are determined independently by participating lenders;
- (d) Eligibility Estimates are indicative only;
- (e) PRYME shall not be liable for variations between Platform information and final lender terms; and
- (f) the User voluntarily assumes responsibility for evaluating and accepting any financial product offered by a participating lender.

5.15 Compliance with RBI Digital Lending Directions

Where the Services involve facilitation of a loan application to a Participating Lender that qualifies as a Regulated Entity under the Reserve Bank of India (Digital Lending) Directions, 2025 (as amended or replaced from time to time), PRYME shall, in its capacity as a Lending Service Provider, act in accordance with the due diligence, disclosure, data-handling, and grievance redressal requirements prescribed thereunder. PRYME shall remain impartial in the presentation of loan offers from Participating Lenders and shall not engage in dark patterns, deceptive design, or any practice intended to mislead a User into selecting a particular lender or product. Ranking of loan offers according to a publicly disclosed and consistently applied metric shall not be considered promotion of any specific Participating Lender.

5.16 Key Fact Statement

Prior to execution of any loan contract facilitated through the Platform, the User shall be provided with a Key Fact Statement ("KFS") issued by the relevant Participating Lender, containing, without limitation, the Annual Percentage Rate, recovery mechanism, applicable fees and penal charges, the cooling-off period, and the contact details of the Participating Lender's and PRYME's nodal grievance redressal officer. The User acknowledges that the KFS, and not any indicative information displayed elsewhere on the Platform, constitutes the authoritative disclosure of loan terms prior to execution.

5.17 Cooling-Off Period

Every loan facilitated through the Platform shall be subject to a cooling-off period, the duration of which shall be determined by the relevant Participating Lender in accordance with applicable RBI directions and shall be disclosed in the KFS. During the cooling-off period, the User may exit the loan by repaying the disbursed principal together with the applicable annualised interest for the period the loan was availed, without further penalty other than a nominal processing fee where applicable. PRYME shall reasonably assist in facilitating such exit but the obligation to process it remains that of the Participating Lender.

PART 6

USER DATA, PRIVACY, CONSENT, COMMUNICATIONS, AND INFORMATION SHARING

6.1 Commitment to Privacy

PRYME recognises that the protection of personal information is fundamental to maintaining the trust of its Users.

The Company is committed to collecting, processing, storing, using, sharing, retaining, and safeguarding personal information in accordance with applicable laws of India, including the Digital Personal Data Protection Act, 2023 and any other applicable data protection, information technology, cybersecurity, or regulatory requirements that may apply from time to time.

This Article forms an integral part of these Terms and shall be read together with the Privacy Policy published by PRYME. In the event of any inconsistency between this Article and the Privacy Policy with respect to data processing practices, the Privacy Policy shall prevail to the extent of such inconsistency.

6.2 Consent to Collection of Information

By accessing or using the Platform, the User expressly consents to the collection and processing of information necessary for providing the Services.

Depending upon the nature of the Services requested, PRYME may collect information including, but not limited to:

- (a) identification details;
- (b) contact information;
- (c) residential information;
- (d) employment details;
- (e) employer information;
- (f) business information;
- (g) income declarations;
- (h) banking-related information;
- (i) loan requirements;
- (j) property-related information;
- (k) documents uploaded by the User;
- (l) communication preferences;
- (m) technical and device information;
- (n) website usage information;
- (o) authentication information;
- (p) information required by participating lenders; and
- (q) any other information voluntarily submitted by the User or reasonably required for providing the Services.

The User acknowledges that refusal to provide information reasonably required for processing an application may limit or prevent PRYME from providing certain Services.

6.3 Purpose of Processing

Information collected through the Platform may be processed for purposes including:

- (a) creating and maintaining User Accounts;
- (b) verifying identity and submitted information;
- (c) generating Eligibility Estimates;
- (d) facilitating applications with participating lenders;
- (e) communicating with Users;
- (f) responding to customer support requests;
- (g) preventing fraud and unauthorised activity;
- (h) improving Platform functionality;
- (i) complying with applicable legal and regulatory obligations;
- (j) conducting internal audits;
- (k) resolving disputes;
- (l) maintaining security of the Platform;
- (m) analysing Platform performance;
- (n) improving customer experience; and
- (o) any other lawful purpose reasonably connected with the Services.

PRYME shall process personal information only for legitimate business purposes consistent with these Terms and the Privacy Policy.

6.4 User Consent for Sharing Information

Where a User chooses to proceed with a financial product application, the User expressly authorises PRYME to share the relevant information and documents with the selected participating lender for the purpose of processing that application.

Such sharing shall occur only after the User has provided the necessary consent through the Platform.

The User acknowledges that participating lenders may require additional information or documentation directly from the User during the course of their independent assessment.

6.5 Withdrawal of Consent

The User may withdraw consent for sharing information with a participating lender at any time before the relevant application is submitted through the Platform.

Where consent is withdrawn prior to submission, PRYME shall discontinue processing the application to the extent reasonably practicable.

However, once information has been shared with a participating lender pursuant to the User's consent, PRYME shall not have the authority to require that lender to return, erase, or cease processing such information.

Any request relating to information already shared with a participating lender shall be governed by the policies of that lender and applicable law.

6.6 Communication Consent

The User expressly consents to receiving communications from PRYME relating to the Services through one or more of the following channels:

- (a) email;
- (b) SMS;
- (c) WhatsApp;
- (d) telephone calls;
- (e) dashboard notifications;
- (f) website notices; and
- (g) any other communication channel lawfully adopted by PRYME.

Such communications may relate to:

- (i) registration;
- (ii) account verification;
- (iii) OTP authentication;
- (iv) application status;
- (v) document requests;
- (vi) service updates;
- (vii) security notifications;
- (viii) grievance resolution;
- (ix) legal notices;
- (x) regulatory disclosures;
- (xi) educational financial content where the User has opted to receive such communications; and
- (xii) any other communication reasonably necessary for providing the Services.

6.7 Marketing Communications

Where permitted by applicable law and the User's communication preferences, PRYME may send information regarding new products, educational resources, promotional campaigns, rewards, referral programmes, and future services.

The User may opt out of promotional communications at any time.

Opting out of promotional communications shall not prevent PRYME from sending communications necessary for:

- (a) authentication;
- (b) account security;
- (c) application processing;
- (d) transaction confirmations;
- (e) legal or regulatory compliance; or
- (f) administration of the User's Account.

6.8 Call Recording

The User acknowledges and agrees that telephone conversations with PRYME may be monitored or recorded, after appropriate notification where required, for purposes including:

- (a) quality assurance;
- (b) staff training;
- (c) dispute resolution;
- (d) fraud prevention;
- (e) regulatory compliance;
- (f) service improvement; and
- (g) evidentiary purposes where permitted by law.

Such recordings shall be handled in accordance with applicable law and the Privacy Policy.

6.9 Cookies and Similar Technologies

The Platform may use cookies, pixels, local storage, software development kits (SDKs), and similar technologies to:

- (a) authenticate Users;
- (b) maintain secure sessions;
- (c) remember preferences;
- (d) improve performance;
- (e) analyse Platform usage;
- (f) enhance security;
- (g) detect fraudulent activity;
- (h) improve user experience; and
- (i) support future Platform functionality.

Additional information regarding the use of cookies shall be provided in the Cookie Policy.

6.10 Third-Party Service Providers

In order to operate the Platform efficiently, PRYME may engage trusted third-party service providers for functions including:

- (a) cloud infrastructure;
- (b) data hosting;
- (c) cybersecurity;
- (d) email delivery;
- (e) SMS delivery;
- (f) WhatsApp communication;
- (g) analytics;
- (h) identity verification;
- (i) document processing;
- (j) customer support technology;
- (k) payment services where applicable;
- (l) credit bureau integrations where authorised by the User;
- (m) Account Aggregator integrations where introduced; and
- (n) other technology services reasonably necessary for operating the Platform.

Such service providers shall receive only such information as is reasonably necessary to perform the relevant services on behalf of PRYME, subject to appropriate contractual and legal safeguards.

6.11 Credit Bureau and Future Integrations

At the time of publication of these Terms, PRYME does not obtain a User's credit bureau report as part of the standard eligibility assessment unless expressly authorised by the User through a future integrated service.

Should PRYME introduce credit bureau integrations, Account Aggregator services, digital KYC solutions, or similar regulated services, the Company shall obtain the User's explicit consent before initiating such requests, wherever required under applicable law.

6.12 Data Retention

PRYME shall retain personal information only for as long as reasonably necessary to fulfil the purposes described in these Terms, comply with legal obligations, resolve disputes, prevent fraud, maintain audit records, or enforce contractual rights.

Where a User requests deletion of an Account, PRYME may defer deletion until any pending application has been completed, withdrawn, cancelled, or otherwise closed.

Following deletion, certain information may continue to be retained for legally permissible purposes, including compliance, taxation, audits, fraud prevention, dispute resolution, and defence of legal claims.

Where technically feasible, Users may access downloadable personal information for a period of up to thirty (30) days following confirmation of account deletion.

6.13 Security Measures

PRYME implements administrative, organisational, contractual, and technical safeguards designed to protect information against unauthorised access, disclosure, alteration, misuse, destruction, or loss.

While the Company continuously strives to maintain appropriate security standards, no internet-based platform, electronic storage system, or method of transmission can be guaranteed to be completely secure.

Accordingly, except where prohibited by applicable law, PRYME does not warrant absolute security of information transmitted electronically.

6.14 User Responsibilities

The User shall:

- (a) maintain confidentiality of Account credentials;
- (b) promptly notify PRYME of suspected unauthorised access;
- (c) provide accurate information;
- (d) avoid sharing sensitive credentials with unauthorised persons;
- (e) use secure devices where reasonably possible; and
- (f) cooperate with security verification procedures initiated by PRYME.

6.15 User Rights

Subject to applicable law, Users may request:

- (a) access to personal information maintained by PRYME;
- (b) correction of inaccurate information;
- (c) withdrawal of consent where legally permissible;
- (d) deletion of personal information, subject to lawful retention requirements; and
- (e) such other rights as may become available under applicable data protection legislation.

Requests may be submitted through the contact details specified in the Privacy Policy or such other mechanism as may be made available by PRYME.

6.16 Data Storage Location

Personal information collected from Users for the purpose of digital lending facilitation shall be stored on servers located within India, in accordance with applicable RBI directions and the Digital Personal Data Protection Act, 2023. Collection of information through the Platform shall be purpose-specific and limited to what is reasonably necessary for the Services; access to device-level data such as contact lists, call logs, or media files shall not be sought except where strictly required for a one-time identity verification process expressly consented to by the User.

6.17 Survival

The provisions of this Article shall survive suspension, deletion, or termination of the User's Account to the extent necessary for compliance with applicable law, enforcement of contractual rights, protection of legitimate business interests, resolution of disputes, or fulfilment of legal obligations.

PART 7

INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS, PLATFORM OWNERSHIP, LIMITED LICENCE, AND RESTRICTIONS

7.1 Ownership of Intellectual Property

The User acknowledges and agrees that the Platform, together with all software, source code, object code, databases, interfaces, user experience designs, layouts, workflows, algorithms, eligibility models, scoring methodologies, business logic, calculators, dashboards, application programming interfaces (APIs), artificial intelligence models, machine learning systems, documentation, reports, text, graphics, illustrations, logos, icons, photographs, audio, video, trademarks, trade names, service marks, domain names, trade secrets, confidential information, know-how, inventions, processes, and all other content, technology, and materials made available on or through the Platform (collectively referred to as the "Intellectual Property") are and shall remain the exclusive property of PRYME or its respective licensors.

Nothing contained in these Terms shall be construed as transferring, assigning, licensing, or otherwise granting any ownership rights in the Intellectual Property to the User, except for the limited licence expressly granted under this Article.

All rights not expressly granted to the User are hereby reserved by PRYME.

7.2 Proprietary Technology

Without limiting the generality of Clause 7.1, the User expressly acknowledges that PRYME has invested substantial financial, technical, operational, and intellectual resources in developing proprietary technologies, including but not limited to:

- (a) eligibility estimation methodologies;
- (b) product recommendation systems;
- (c) financial comparison engines;
- (d) customer workflow automation;
- (e) document management processes;
- (f) fraud detection mechanisms;
- (g) application routing systems;
- (h) customer communication workflows;
- (i) data processing methodologies;
- (j) artificial intelligence and automation tools introduced from time to time; and
- (k) any enhancements, modifications, upgrades, or derivative works thereof.

Such proprietary technologies constitute valuable confidential intellectual property of PRYME and shall remain protected under applicable intellectual property laws, trade secret laws, contractual obligations, and principles of equity.

7.3 Trademarks

The names PRYME, PRYME Loans, GOPRYME FINTECH PRIVATE LIMITED, the Company's logos, trade dress, visual identity, branding elements, slogans, graphics, domain names, icons, and any other identifying marks displayed on the Platform are proprietary trademarks or branding assets belonging to PRYME or its licensors unless otherwise indicated. Nothing contained on the Platform grants any licence or permission to use any trademark without the Company's prior written consent.

Unauthorised use of any trademark, logo, branding element, or domain name that is identical with or confusingly similar to PRYME's intellectual property is strictly prohibited.

7.4 Copyright

All copyright and related rights in the Platform, including software, website content, reports, documentation, articles, educational material, images, graphics, videos, downloadable content, databases, and compilations, belong to PRYME or its licensors.

Such works are protected under the Copyright Act, 1957, applicable international treaties, and other applicable intellectual property laws.

The User shall not reproduce, distribute, modify, publish, transmit, publicly display, publicly perform, create derivative works from, or otherwise exploit any copyrighted material without prior written permission from PRYME.

7.5 Limited Licence

Subject to continued compliance with these Terms, PRYME grants the User a limited, personal, revocable, non-exclusive, non-transferable, non-sublicensable licence to access and use the Platform solely for lawful personal purposes related to the Services.

This licence does not permit the User to:

- (a) commercially exploit the Platform;
- (b) copy substantial portions of the Platform;
- (c) create competing products or services;
- (d) distribute Platform content to third parties;
- (e) use Platform content for commercial gain;
- (f) remove proprietary notices;
- (g) access systems beyond those ordinarily available to Users; or
- (h) engage in any activity inconsistent with these Terms.

The licence granted under this Article automatically terminates upon suspension or termination of the User's Account or upon cessation of these Terms for any reason.

7.6 Restrictions on Use

Except where expressly authorised by PRYME in writing or permitted under mandatory provisions of applicable law, the User shall not directly or indirectly:

- (a) reproduce any portion of the Platform;
- (b) copy or duplicate software;
- (c) download Platform databases;
- (d) extract substantial quantities of data;
- (e) scrape lender information;
- (f) harvest customer information;
- (g) create mirror websites;
- (h) modify Platform content;
- (i) translate proprietary software;
- (j) adapt Platform technology;
- (k) commercially exploit any portion of the Platform;
- (l) use Platform content to train artificial intelligence models without written permission;
- (m) attempt to reconstruct eligibility algorithms;
- (n) use automated systems to collect Platform information; or
- (o) otherwise exploit PRYME's Intellectual Property in any manner inconsistent with these Terms.

7.7 Reverse Engineering

Except where expressly permitted by applicable law that cannot lawfully be excluded, the User shall not:

- (a) reverse engineer;
- (b) decompile;
- (c) disassemble;
- (d) decode;
- (e) circumvent security mechanisms;
- (f) analyse internal architecture;
- (g) reconstruct databases;
- (h) derive source code;
- (i) discover proprietary algorithms; or
- (j) otherwise attempt to determine the underlying implementation of any software, algorithm, model, or technology used by PRYME.

7.8 User Feedback

PRYME welcomes suggestions, comments, ideas, feature requests, testimonials, reviews, and other feedback submitted by Users.

Unless otherwise agreed in writing, the User grants PRYME a perpetual, worldwide, irrevocable, royalty-free, transferable, sublicensable, and non-exclusive right to use, reproduce, modify, publish, translate, distribute, adapt, display, and incorporate such feedback into the Platform or the Company's business without payment of compensation.

Nothing in this Clause obligates PRYME to implement any suggestion or maintain any communication regarding submitted feedback.

7.9 User Content

To the extent that a User uploads documents, information, photographs, communications, or other content to the Platform, the User retains ownership of such material.

However, the User grants PRYME a limited, non-exclusive, royalty-free licence to store, reproduce, transmit, process, verify, analyse, and share such material with participating lenders and authorised service providers solely for purposes connected with the Services, regulatory compliance, fraud prevention, dispute resolution, and operation of the Platform.

Such licence shall continue only for as long as reasonably necessary to fulfil the purposes contemplated under these Terms or applicable law.

7.10 Third-Party Intellectual Property

Certain content, trademarks, logos, software, financial product information, lender names, or other materials displayed on the Platform may belong to participating lenders or other third parties.

Nothing contained on the Platform shall be interpreted as granting the User any right to use such third-party intellectual property.

Users shall independently comply with any applicable rights relating to third-party content.

7.11 Monitoring and Enforcement

PRYME reserves the right to investigate suspected infringements of its Intellectual Property and may, without limitation:

- (a) suspend User Accounts;
- (b) restrict Platform access;
- (c) remove infringing material;
- (d) issue cease and desist notices;
- (e) seek injunctive relief;
- (f) recover damages;
- (g) claim legal costs;
- (h) report unlawful activity to competent authorities; and
- (i) pursue any other remedy available under applicable law.

The exercise of one remedy shall not preclude PRYME from exercising any other remedy available under law or equity.

7.12 No Implied Rights

No provision of these Terms shall be interpreted as granting the User any licence, ownership interest, assignment, or right by implication, estoppel, waiver, or otherwise in respect of the Intellectual Property of PRYME or any third party.

Any rights not expressly granted under these Terms are expressly reserved.

7.13 Survival

The provisions contained in this Article shall survive suspension, deletion, termination of the User's Account, discontinuation of the Platform, expiration of these Terms, or completion of any Services provided by PRYME, to the extent necessary to protect the Company's intellectual property rights and enforce its legal remedies.

PART 8

FEES, REWARDS, CASHBACK, REFERRAL PROGRAMMES, PROMOTIONAL CAMPAIGNS, AND COMMERCIAL POLICIES

8.1 No Charges to Users

Unless expressly communicated otherwise in writing for a specific product or service introduced in the future, PRYME does not charge Users any fee for:

- (a) accessing the Platform;
- (b) browsing or comparing financial products;
- (c) obtaining an Eligibility Estimate;
- (d) creating or maintaining a User Account;
- (e) submitting a loan application through the Platform;
- (f) receiving customer support relating to the application process; or
- (g) using any feature expressly identified as free on the Platform.

The User acknowledges that access to the Platform and the Services described above is presently provided without any platform fee, convenience fee, consultation fee, subscription fee, or application submission fee payable to PRYME.

8.2 Future Paid Services

PRYME reserves the right to introduce paid products, premium services, subscriptions, advisory tools, software features, or additional financial services in the future.

Where any paid service is introduced:

- (a) the applicable charges shall be clearly disclosed before the User incurs any payment obligation;
- (b) acceptance of such charges shall require the User's express consent;
- (c) additional product-specific terms may apply; and
- (d) nothing in this Article shall require a User to purchase optional paid services in order to continue using those portions of the Platform that remain free.

8.3 Promotional Campaigns

From time to time, PRYME may introduce promotional campaigns intended to encourage customer engagement or reward eligible Users.

Such campaigns may include, without limitation:

- (a) cashback programmes;
- (b) referral programmes;
- (c) reward points;
- (d) discount vouchers;
- (e) promotional coupons;
- (f) seasonal campaigns;
- (g) contests;
- (h) incentive programmes;
- (i) partner offers; or
- (j) any other promotional initiative determined by PRYME.

Participation in any promotional campaign shall always remain subject to the specific terms governing that campaign in addition to these Terms.

8.4 Cashback Eligibility

Unless otherwise specified under a particular promotional campaign, cashback or similar monetary rewards shall become payable only after all applicable eligibility conditions have been satisfied.

Without limitation, PRYME may require that:

- (a) the application has been submitted through the Platform;
- (b) the loan has been approved by the participating lender;
- (c) the loan has been successfully disbursed;
- (d) the User has complied with these Terms;
- (e) the promotional campaign remains applicable to the relevant transaction; and
- (f) any additional conditions published for the campaign have been fulfilled.

No User shall acquire any vested right to cashback until all applicable conditions have been satisfied.

8.5 Circumstances in Which Cashback May Be Refused

PRYME reserves the right to refuse, suspend, reverse, or cancel cashback, promotional rewards, or incentives where:

- (a) the application is rejected;
- (b) the application is withdrawn by the User;
- (c) the loan is cancelled before disbursement;
- (d) the User submits false or misleading information;
- (e) fraudulent documentation is identified;
- (f) duplicate Accounts are used;
- (g) self-referrals are detected;
- (h) promotional abuse is identified;
- (i) the transaction does not satisfy the campaign requirements;
- (j) the User breaches these Terms; or
- (k) payment would otherwise violate applicable law or regulatory requirements.

The exercise of this right shall not prejudice any additional legal remedies available to PRYME.

8.6 Honouring Valid Rewards

Notwithstanding Clause 8.5, where a User has validly qualified for a cashback or promotional reward in accordance with the applicable campaign terms and PRYME has expressly communicated that such reward is payable, PRYME shall honour the commitment within the applicable timeline, subject to verification of eligibility and compliance with these Terms.

Nothing contained in these Terms shall permit PRYME to arbitrarily deny a reward that has been legitimately earned under an applicable promotional programme.

8.7 Referral Programmes

PRYME may introduce referral programmes in the future to encourage Users to introduce new customers to the Platform.

Participation in any referral programme shall be entirely voluntary and governed by separate promotional terms published by PRYME.

PRYME reserves the right to determine:

- (a) referral eligibility;
- (b) qualifying events;
- (c) reward structures;
- (d) payment timelines;
- (e) programme duration;
- (f) geographical availability; and
- (g) any other conditions applicable to the programme.

8.8 Referral Abuse

Without limiting any other rights available to PRYME, referral rewards may be withheld, cancelled, reversed, or recovered where PRYME reasonably determines that a User has engaged in:

- (a) self-referrals;
- (b) creation of multiple Accounts;
- (c) fake registrations;
- (d) automated referrals;
- (e) impersonation;
- (f) fraudulent applications;
- (g) misleading information;
- (h) manipulation of referral tracking mechanisms;
- (i) collusive activity; or
- (j) any conduct intended to unfairly obtain referral benefits.

PRYME's determination regarding referral abuse shall be based upon its internal fraud detection procedures and reasonable assessment of the relevant circumstances.

8.9 Promotional Changes

PRYME reserves the right to introduce, amend, suspend, extend, replace, or discontinue any promotional campaign, referral programme, cashback scheme, or reward initiative at any time. Such modifications shall operate prospectively unless otherwise required by applicable law.

No modification shall affect rewards that have already been validly earned and expressly confirmed in accordance with the applicable promotional terms.

8.10 Taxes

Unless expressly stated otherwise, any tax implications arising from cashback, referral incentives, rewards, or other promotional benefits shall remain the responsibility of the User to the extent required under applicable law.

Where PRYME is required by law to deduct or withhold taxes before making any payment, PRYME may do so in accordance with applicable legal requirements.

8.11 No Right to Continued Promotions

The User acknowledges that promotional campaigns are discretionary business initiatives introduced by PRYME from time to time.

Nothing contained in these Terms shall be interpreted as creating a continuing obligation upon PRYME to:

- (a) continue any promotion;
- (b) maintain identical reward structures;
- (c) repeat previous campaigns;
- (d) provide equivalent benefits in future campaigns; or
- (e) introduce promotions at any minimum frequency.

8.12 Errors and Administrative Corrections

If PRYME discovers that a cashback, reward, referral payment, voucher, coupon, or other promotional benefit has been issued due to a technical error, system malfunction, duplicate processing, fraudulent activity, or administrative mistake, PRYME reserves the right to correct the error.

Such correction may include:

- (a) cancellation of the reward;
- (b) adjustment of the amount payable;
- (c) recovery of excess payments where legally permissible;
- (d) suspension of further promotional benefits pending investigation; or
- (e) any other reasonable corrective action.

Before recovering any amount from a User, PRYME may provide the User with an opportunity to explain the circumstances where appropriate.

8.13 Commercial Independence

Participation in any promotional campaign shall not influence:

- (a) the Eligibility Estimate generated by the Platform;
- (b) the credit assessment undertaken by a participating lender;
- (c) the lender's underwriting process;
- (d) the lender's commercial terms; or
- (e) the lender's decision to approve or reject an application.

All lending decisions remain solely within the discretion of the participating lender irrespective of any promotional programme operated by PRYME.

8.14 Future Commercial Policies

PRYME may introduce additional commercial policies governing premium subscriptions, value-added services, insurance products, credit cards, investments, Account Aggregator services, artificial intelligence features, financial planning tools, or other financial technology services.

Where such services are introduced, they may be governed by separate product-specific terms in addition to these Terms.

8.15 Survival

The provisions of this Article shall survive termination of the User's Account to the extent necessary for the administration of pending promotional claims, investigation of fraud, recovery of amounts lawfully due, compliance with legal obligations, or enforcement of PRYME's rights under these Terms.

PART 9

THIRD-PARTY SERVICES, PARTICIPATING LENDERS, EXTERNAL PLATFORMS, AND REGULATORY INDEPENDENCE

9.1 Independent Third-Party Relationships

The User acknowledges and agrees that, in order to provide the Services efficiently, PRYME may integrate with, communicate with, or facilitate interactions between the User and various independent third parties.

Such third parties may include, without limitation:

- (a) scheduled commercial banks;
- (b) Non-Banking Financial Companies (NBFCs);
- (c) housing finance companies;
- (d) regulated financial institutions;
- (e) credit information companies and credit bureaus, where expressly authorised by the User;
- (f) digital identity verification providers;
- (g) Account Aggregator ecosystem participants, if introduced in the future;
- (h) cloud infrastructure providers;
- (i) cybersecurity service providers;
- (j) communication service providers, including SMS, email, and messaging platforms;
- (k) analytics providers;
- (l) document verification service providers;
- (m) payment service providers, if applicable; and
- (n) any other third-party service provider reasonably required for the operation, enhancement, security, or delivery of the Platform.

Each such entity operates independently of PRYME and remains responsible for its own products, services, policies, contractual obligations, operational procedures, and legal compliance.

9.2 No Partnership or Agency

Unless expressly stated in a written agreement, nothing contained in these Terms or on the Platform shall be construed as creating:

- (a) a partnership;
- (b) a joint venture;
- (c) an employment relationship;
- (d) an agency relationship;
- (e) a franchise;
- (f) a fiduciary relationship; or
- (g) any other legal relationship empowering PRYME to bind or legally represent a participating lender or third-party service provider.

Similarly, no participating lender or third-party service provider shall be deemed to be an agent, employee, representative, or legal extension of PRYME solely by virtue of being accessible through the Platform.

9.3 Independence of Participating Lenders

Every participating lender maintains complete operational, commercial, legal, and regulatory independence.

Accordingly, participating lenders retain exclusive authority over matters including, but not limited to:

- (a) customer onboarding;
- (b) underwriting criteria;
- (c) credit evaluation;
- (d) risk assessment;
- (e) documentation requirements;
- (f) interest rates;
- (g) processing fees;
- (h) sanction conditions;
- (i) collateral requirements;
- (j) legal verification;
- (k) technical verification;
- (l) valuation processes;
- (m) loan documentation;
- (n) disbursal timelines;
- (o) repayment administration;
- (p) foreclosure policies;
- (q) recovery proceedings; and
- (r) closure of loan accounts.

PRYME neither directs nor controls these decisions.

9.4 No Liability for Third-Party Decisions

PRYME shall not be liable for any act, omission, negligence, delay, error, breach, default, refusal, or decision of any participating lender or third-party service provider.

Without limitation, PRYME shall not be responsible for:

- (a) rejection of a loan application;
- (b) modification of commercial terms;
- (c) delay in processing;
- (d) delay in disbursal;
- (e) refusal to process an application;
- (f) requests for additional documentation;
- (g) technical failures occurring within third-party systems;
- (h) operational errors of third-party service providers;
- (i) customer service deficiencies of participating lenders;
- (j) recovery actions initiated by lenders;
- (k) foreclosure charges imposed by lenders;
- (l) interest calculations undertaken by lenders;
- (m) closure of financial products by lenders; or
- (n) any contractual dispute arising between the User and a participating lender.

9.5 Information Provided by Third Parties

Certain information displayed on the Platform, including product features, indicative interest rates, lender programmes, eligibility criteria, documentation requirements, and promotional campaigns, may originate from participating lenders or other reliable third-party sources.

Although PRYME undertakes reasonable efforts to maintain current information, the Company does not warrant that such information shall always remain complete, accurate, or up to date, as third parties may modify or withdraw information without prior notice.

Users are advised to carefully review all documentation issued directly by the participating lender before accepting any financial product.

9.6 External Websites and Links

The Platform may contain hyperlinks, references, integrations, embedded services, or redirections to websites or applications operated by third parties.

Such links are provided solely for the convenience of Users.

PRYME does not control, monitor, endorse, certify, or assume responsibility for:

- (a) third-party websites;
- (b) external content;
- (c) third-party privacy practices;
- (d) availability of external services;
- (e) security of external platforms;
- (f) products offered by third parties; or
- (g) contractual relationships entered into by Users with third parties.

Accessing any external platform is undertaken entirely at the User's own discretion and risk.

9.7 Third-Party Terms

Certain Services made available through the Platform may require the User to separately accept the terms, privacy policies, or contractual conditions of participating lenders or other third-party service providers.

The User acknowledges that such third-party agreements exist independently of these Terms.

Nothing contained herein shall modify, replace, or override any agreement entered into directly between the User and a participating lender or third-party service provider.

9.8 Credit Bureau Services

Where PRYME introduces integrations with credit bureaus or credit information companies in the future, such services shall be accessed only after obtaining the User's express consent wherever required under applicable law.

The User acknowledges that:

- (a) PRYME does not presently perform routine credit bureau enquiries as part of the standard eligibility assessment;
- (b) future credit bureau integrations may be governed by additional terms;
- (c) participating lenders may independently obtain credit reports as part of their own underwriting process; and
- (d) PRYME shall not be responsible for the contents, accuracy, completeness, or decisions arising from information maintained by any credit bureau.

9.9 Account Aggregator and Future Integrations

If PRYME introduces services through the Account Aggregator ecosystem or other regulated financial technology frameworks in the future, such services shall be subject to:

- (a) the User's explicit consent wherever required;
- (b) applicable regulatory requirements;
- (c) separate product-specific terms where necessary; and
- (d) the policies of the relevant regulated entities participating in such ecosystems.

Nothing contained in these Terms shall require PRYME to introduce or maintain any particular integration.

9.10 Technology Service Providers

PRYME may engage independent technology service providers for purposes including hosting, storage, cybersecurity, communication, analytics, document management, authentication, fraud prevention, software development, artificial intelligence, customer support, and operational efficiency.

The engagement of such providers shall not diminish the Company's commitment to safeguarding User information in accordance with applicable law and the Privacy Policy.

9.11 Regulatory Independence

Each participating lender, third-party financial institution, and regulated service provider remains independently responsible for obtaining and maintaining all licences, registrations, approvals, and authorisations required under applicable law.

The User acknowledges that PRYME's use of or integration with any such entity shall not be interpreted as:

- (a) regulatory endorsement of PRYME;
- (b) a guarantee of regulatory compliance by any third party;
- (c) a representation regarding the financial condition of any participating lender; or
- (d) a guarantee regarding the quality or suitability of any third-party service.

9.12 Changes in Third-Party Relationships

PRYME reserves the right to add, remove, replace, suspend, or modify participating lenders, service providers, integrations, partnerships, and external technologies at any time in response to commercial, operational, regulatory, technical, or strategic considerations.

The removal or addition of any third party shall not create any liability on the part of PRYME toward the User.

9.13 User Responsibility

The User remains solely responsible for reviewing and understanding:

- (a) the terms issued by participating lenders;
- (b) loan agreements;
- (c) sanction letters;
- (d) repayment schedules;
- (e) security documents;
- (f) privacy policies of third parties where applicable; and
- (g) any contractual documentation executed directly with a participating lender.

PRYME strongly encourages Users to seek independent professional advice where they do not fully understand the legal or financial implications of any financial product.

9.14 Survival

The rights, protections, limitations of liability, acknowledgements, disclaimers, and obligations contained in this Article shall survive suspension, termination, deletion of the User's Account, discontinuation of the Platform, or expiry of these Terms to the extent necessary to protect the lawful interests of PRYME and participating third parties.

PART 10

LIMITATION OF LIABILITY, DISCLAIMER OF WARRANTIES, INDEMNIFICATION, AND ALLOCATION OF RISK

10.1 Allocation of Risk

The User acknowledges that the Platform is a technology-enabled facilitation platform intended to assist Users in comparing financial products, obtaining indicative eligibility assessments, and connecting with participating financial institutions.

The User further acknowledges that lending decisions involve numerous commercial, regulatory, financial, technological, legal, and operational factors that remain outside the control of PRYME.

Accordingly, the Parties expressly agree that the risks associated with any financial product obtained through the Platform shall be allocated in accordance with this Article.

10.2 No Warranty of Loan Approval

PRYME expressly disclaims any representation, warranty, assurance, or guarantee that:

- (a) a loan application will be approved;
- (b) a lender will issue a sanction letter;
- (c) a lender will offer a particular loan amount;
- (d) a lender will offer a particular interest rate;
- (e) a lender will offer a particular repayment tenure;
- (f) a lender will process an application within any specified period;
- (g) a lender will disburse funds; or
- (h) a lender will continue to offer a financial product displayed on the Platform.

All such decisions remain exclusively within the discretion of the participating lender.

10.3 Eligibility Estimates

The User understands and agrees that every Eligibility Estimate displayed on the Platform is indicative in nature.

An Eligibility Estimate shall not constitute:

- (a) financial advice;
- (b) legal advice;
- (c) tax advice;
- (d) investment advice;
- (e) a loan approval;
- (f) a commitment to lend;
- (g) a contractual offer; or
- (h) a legally enforceable promise.

Users should independently evaluate every financial product before accepting any offer made by a participating lender.

10.4 Technology and Platform Availability

PRYME continuously endeavours to provide a secure, reliable, and efficient Platform.

However, the User acknowledges that technology is inherently subject to limitations, interruptions, maintenance activities, software defects, internet failures, cyber threats, human error, and events beyond reasonable control.

Accordingly, PRYME does not warrant that:

- (a) the Platform will always remain uninterrupted;
- (b) every feature will always function without error;
- (c) temporary outages will never occur;
- (d) data transmission will always be instantaneous;
- (e) the Platform will always remain compatible with every device or browser; or
- (f) technical issues will never arise.

Nothing contained in this Clause shall be interpreted as reducing PRYME's commitment to maintaining appropriate operational and security standards.

10.5 No Financial Advisory Relationship

Information, calculators, educational material, comparisons, recommendations, AI-assisted suggestions, blogs, articles, FAQs, and other informational resources made available through the Platform are intended solely to assist Users in understanding financial products.

Such information shall not be interpreted as creating:

- (a) a financial adviser-client relationship;
- (b) an investment adviser relationship;
- (c) a legal adviser-client relationship;
- (d) a fiduciary relationship; or
- (e) any professional advisory engagement.

10.6 Limitation of Liability

To the fullest extent permitted under applicable law, PRYME shall not be liable for any direct, indirect, incidental, consequential, special, exemplary, punitive, or economic loss arising out of or in connection with:

- (a) rejection of a loan application;
- (b) delay in processing;
- (c) lender decisions;
- (d) modification of lender terms;
- (e) delay in disbursement;
- (f) inaccuracies resulting from incorrect information supplied by the User;
- (g) interruption of Platform services;
- (h) unauthorised acts of third parties;
- (i) reliance placed upon indicative Eligibility Estimates;
- (j) business interruption;
- (k) loss of profits;
- (l) loss of business opportunity;
- (m) loss of goodwill;
- (n) reputational harm;
- (o) data loss caused by circumstances beyond PRYME's reasonable control; or
- (p) any act or omission of a participating lender or independent third-party service provider.

Nothing contained in these Terms shall exclude or limit liability where such exclusion is prohibited under applicable law.

10.7 User Responsibility

The User remains solely responsible for:

- (a) evaluating the suitability of financial products;
- (b) reviewing sanction letters and loan documentation;
- (c) understanding repayment obligations;
- (d) ensuring the accuracy of information submitted;
- (e) safeguarding Account credentials;
- (f) complying with applicable laws; and
- (g) making independent financial decisions.

The User acknowledges that reliance upon the Platform shall not replace independent judgment.

10.8 Indemnification

The User agrees to defend, indemnify, and hold harmless GOPRYME FINTECH PRIVATE LIMITED, its directors, officers, employees, consultants, affiliates, service providers, successors, assigns, and authorised representatives from and against any claims, proceedings, demands, damages, liabilities, losses, penalties, fines, costs, expenses, and reasonable legal fees arising out of or relating to:

- (a) breach of these Terms;
- (b) submission of false, misleading, or fraudulent information;
- (c) forged or manipulated documentation;
- (d) misuse of the Platform;
- (e) violation of applicable law;
- (f) infringement of intellectual property rights;
- (g) unauthorised access to the Platform using the User's credentials;
- (h) disputes arising from the User's relationship with a participating lender; or
- (i) any negligent, unlawful, or fraudulent act or omission of the User.

10.9 Mitigation

Nothing contained in this Article shall prevent PRYME from taking reasonable steps to mitigate losses, investigate suspected fraud, cooperate with regulatory authorities, or enforce its contractual and legal rights.

10.10 Survival

The provisions contained in this Article shall survive suspension or termination of the User's Account, discontinuation of the Platform, completion of Services, expiry of these Terms, and any subsequent contractual relationship between the User and a participating lender.

PART 11

SUSPENSION, RESTRICTION, TERMINATION, ACCOUNT DELETION, AND EFFECT OF TERMINATION

11.1 General Right to Suspend or Restrict Access

In order to protect the integrity of the Platform, safeguard the interests of Users and participating lenders, maintain compliance with applicable laws, and preserve the security of its technology infrastructure, PRYME reserves the right, at its sole but reasonable discretion, to suspend, restrict, limit, or terminate access to all or any part of the Platform.

Such action may be taken temporarily or permanently depending upon the nature, severity, recurrence, and potential impact of the relevant circumstances.

Nothing contained in this Article shall obligate PRYME to continue providing access to the Platform where doing so may expose the Company, its Users, participating lenders, service providers, or regulatory standing to unreasonable legal, financial, operational, cybersecurity, or reputational risk.

11.2 Suspension Without Prior Notice

Without prejudice to any other rights available under these Terms or applicable law, PRYME may immediately suspend or restrict access to the Platform, with or without prior notice, where it reasonably believes that:

- (a) false, inaccurate, misleading, or incomplete information has been submitted;
- (b) forged, manipulated, fabricated, or fraudulent documentation has been uploaded;
- (c) the User has violated these Terms;
- (d) the User has violated applicable law;
- (e) fraudulent activity is suspected;
- (f) identity theft is suspected;
- (g) unauthorised access has been detected;
- (h) the User has attempted to compromise the security of the Platform;
- (i) multiple unauthorised Accounts have been created;
- (j) referral abuse or promotional fraud has been detected;
- (k) the User has attempted to interfere with Platform operations;
- (l) the User has engaged in abusive, threatening, defamatory, discriminatory, or unlawful conduct toward PRYME personnel or other Users;
- (m) PRYME receives a lawful direction from a competent authority; or
- (n) any other circumstance exists which, in PRYME's reasonable opinion, justifies immediate protective action.

11.3 Restriction of Specific Features

Instead of suspending an entire Account, PRYME may restrict specific Platform features where such action is proportionate to the circumstances.

Such restrictions may include limitation or suspension of:

- (a) loan application submissions;
- (b) document uploads;
- (c) promotional benefits;
- (d) referral programmes;
- (e) account modifications;
- (f) eligibility assessments;
- (g) customer communications; or
- (h) any other Platform functionality reasonably considered necessary.

11.4 Investigation

Where suspicious activity is detected, PRYME may initiate an internal investigation.

During such investigation, PRYME may:

- (a) temporarily suspend processing of an application;
 - (b) seek clarification from the User;
 - (c) request additional documents;
 - (d) verify information with participating lenders where appropriate;
 - (e) engage specialised fraud detection procedures;
 - (f) cooperate with competent governmental or regulatory authorities where legally required;
- and
- (g) take any other reasonable step necessary to protect the Platform and its stakeholders.

The User agrees to reasonably cooperate during any such investigation.

Failure to cooperate may result in continued suspension or termination of access.

11.5 Termination by PRYME

PRYME may permanently terminate a User's Account where it reasonably determines that:

- (a) material fraud has occurred;
- (b) repeated breaches of these Terms have occurred;
- (c) the User has intentionally misled PRYME or participating lenders;
- (d) forged or fabricated documents have been submitted;
- (e) the Platform has been used for unlawful purposes;
- (f) the User has attempted to circumvent fraud detection systems;
- (g) continued access would expose PRYME to unreasonable legal or operational risk; or
- (h) termination is otherwise necessary to protect the legitimate interests of PRYME, participating lenders, Users, or third-party service providers.

Termination under this Clause shall not prejudice PRYME's right to pursue any other remedy available under these Terms or applicable law.

11.6 Termination by the User

The User may discontinue use of the Platform at any time.

Where the User has created an Account, the User may request deletion in accordance with the procedures prescribed by PRYME.

Where a loan application remains pending, under review, approved but awaiting documentation, awaiting disbursement, or otherwise in progress, PRYME may postpone processing of the deletion request until the relevant application has been completed, cancelled, withdrawn, or otherwise closed.

11.7 Effect of Suspension

During the period of suspension, PRYME may, depending upon the circumstances:

- (a) prevent login to the Platform;
- (b) suspend ongoing application processing;
- (c) restrict access to documents;
- (d) disable promotional benefits;
- (e) suspend referral eligibility;
- (f) prevent modification of profile information;
- (g) temporarily disable communications through the Platform; or
- (h) implement any other reasonable restriction considered necessary.

Suspension shall not automatically release the User from obligations that arose before the date of suspension.

11.8 Effect of Termination

Upon termination of an Account:

- (a) the User's right to access the Platform shall immediately cease except where limited access is required by applicable law;
- (b) pending applications may be discontinued where legally permissible;
- (c) promotional benefits not yet earned may be forfeited;
- (d) access credentials shall be disabled;
- (e) licences granted under these Terms shall automatically terminate; and
- (f) PRYME may retain information where permitted or required by applicable law, the Privacy Policy, or legitimate business purposes.

Termination of the User's Account shall not automatically terminate or modify any contractual relationship existing directly between the User and a participating lender.

11.9 Deletion of User Data

Following successful processing of an Account deletion request, PRYME shall take reasonable steps to delete or anonymise personal information no longer required for lawful purposes.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, PRYME may continue to retain information where reasonably necessary for:

- (a) compliance with applicable law;
- (b) taxation requirements;
- (c) audit purposes;
- (d) fraud prevention;
- (e) regulatory compliance;
- (f) dispute resolution;
- (g) enforcement of contractual rights;
- (h) defence of legal claims; or
- (i) any other legitimate business purpose recognised under applicable law.

11.10 Outstanding Rights and Obligations

Termination of these Terms or deletion of an Account shall not affect:

- (a) obligations accrued before termination;
- (b) outstanding liabilities;
- (c) indemnity obligations;
- (d) confidentiality obligations;
- (e) intellectual property rights;
- (f) dispute resolution provisions;
- (g) payment obligations, if any arise under future paid services;
- (h) fraud investigations;
- (i) legal proceedings; or
- (j) any provision which, by its nature or express wording, is intended to survive termination.

11.11 No Liability for Suspension or Termination

Subject to applicable law, PRYME shall not be liable for any loss, inconvenience, delay, reputational impact, or consequential damages arising solely from the lawful suspension, restriction, or termination of a User's Account in accordance with these Terms.

Nothing in this Clause shall affect any rights that cannot lawfully be excluded under applicable law.

11.12 Reinstatement

Where an Account has been suspended rather than permanently terminated, PRYME may, at its sole discretion, reinstate the Account after the User has satisfactorily addressed the issues that gave rise to the suspension.

Reinstatement shall not constitute a waiver of any rights available to PRYME under these Terms and shall not prevent PRYME from taking future action in respect of subsequent violations.

11.13 Survival

The provisions relating to intellectual property, confidentiality, data retention, limitation of liability, indemnification, dispute resolution, governing law, fraud prevention, and any other provisions which by their nature are intended to survive shall remain in full force and effect notwithstanding suspension, termination, deletion of the Account, or expiry of these Terms.

PART 12

COMPLAINTS, CUSTOMER SUPPORT, AND GRIEVANCE REDRESSAL

12.1 Commitment to Customer Service

PRYME is committed to providing prompt, transparent, and professional customer support throughout the User's interaction with the Platform. The Company recognises that timely resolution of concerns contributes to maintaining confidence in the Platform and therefore endeavours to address complaints in a fair, objective, and efficient manner.

Customer support provided by PRYME shall primarily relate to matters concerning the Platform, application facilitation, document coordination, communication with participating lenders, technical assistance, and other services offered directly by PRYME.

12.2 Scope of Support

Subject to these Terms, PRYME may provide assistance relating to:

- (a) Account registration and access;
- (b) Platform functionality;
- (c) Eligibility Estimates;
- (d) document submission and preliminary verification;
- (e) application tracking;
- (f) coordination with participating lenders where reasonably possible;
- (g) clarification regarding Platform features;
- (h) promotional campaigns administered by PRYME; and
- (i) any other matter directly relating to the Services.

12.3 Matters Outside PRYME's Control

PRYME shall not be responsible for resolving disputes arising solely between the User and a participating lender.

Such matters include, without limitation:

- (a) loan approval or rejection;
- (b) sanction conditions;
- (c) interest rates;
- (d) repayment obligations;
- (e) EMIs;
- (f) foreclosure charges;
- (g) prepayment penalties;
- (h) recovery proceedings;
- (i) restructuring requests; and
- (j) interpretation of loan agreements.

PRYME may, at its discretion, assist in facilitating communication between the User and the participating lender, however such assistance shall not impose any legal obligation upon PRYME to resolve the underlying dispute.

12.4 Submission of Complaints

Users may submit complaints through the communication channels made available by PRYME, including email, website support forms, dashboard support features, or any other officially notified channel.

The User agrees to provide sufficient information to enable PRYME to understand and investigate the concern.

12.5 Acknowledgement of Complaints

PRYME shall endeavour to acknowledge complaints within twenty-four (24) hours to three (3) Business Days from receipt, depending upon the complexity of the matter and operational circumstances.

Acknowledgement of a complaint shall not constitute acceptance of liability.

12.6 Resolution Timeline

PRYME shall use reasonable efforts to resolve complaints falling within its responsibility within thirty (30) days from receipt of all reasonably necessary information.

Certain matters may require additional time where they involve third parties, regulatory authorities, fraud investigations, or circumstances beyond PRYME's reasonable control.

12.7 User Cooperation

The User agrees to cooperate in good faith during the grievance resolution process by providing timely responses, accurate information, and supporting documentation where reasonably requested.

Failure to provide requested information may delay investigation or resolution.

12.8 Escalation

If a User remains dissatisfied after the initial review, the matter may be escalated through the grievance mechanism prescribed by PRYME.

Details of the Grievance Officer shall be published separately by the Company and may be updated from time to time.

12.8A Escalation to the Reserve Bank of India

Where a User's complaint relating to a digital loan facilitated through the Platform is not resolved to the User's satisfaction within thirty (30) days of submission, or where the User is otherwise dissatisfied with the response received, the User may escalate the complaint through the Complaint Management System of the Reserve Bank of India, or lodge a physical complaint before the competent Reserve Bank of India Ombudsman, in accordance with applicable RBI directions then in force.

12.9 Good Faith Resolution

Before commencing legal proceedings against PRYME, the User agrees to first make reasonable efforts to resolve the matter through the Company's grievance mechanism.

Nothing contained in this Clause shall restrict any statutory rights available under applicable law.

12.10 Survival

The grievance procedure described in this Article shall survive termination of the User's Account to the extent necessary for resolving disputes relating to Services previously provided.

PART 13

ELECTRONIC COMMUNICATIONS, ELECTRONIC RECORDS, AND DIGITAL CONSENT

13.1 Electronic Communications

By accessing or using the Platform, the User consents to receive communications from PRYME in electronic form.

Such communications may be transmitted through:

- (a) email;
- (b) SMS;
- (c) WhatsApp;
- (d) dashboard notifications;
- (e) website notices;
- (f) push notifications, where applicable; and
- (g) any other lawful electronic communication channel adopted by PRYME.

13.2 Legal Validity

The User agrees that electronic communications satisfy any legal requirement that such communications be in writing, to the extent permitted by applicable law.

Electronic records maintained by PRYME may be relied upon as evidence of communications, instructions, acknowledgements, and transactions.

13.3 Electronic Acceptance

Acceptance of these Terms or any related policy through electronic means, including clicking an acceptance checkbox, OTP verification, digital confirmation, electronic signature, or any similar authentication mechanism, shall constitute valid and legally binding acceptance.

13.4 Delivery of Notices

Any notice sent by PRYME to the email address, mobile number, or other contact details registered by the User shall be deemed to have been duly delivered when transmitted by PRYME, irrespective of whether the User has actually read or accessed the communication.

The User remains responsible for ensuring that registered contact information remains accurate and operational.

13.5 User Responsibility

The User agrees to:

- (a) regularly monitor registered communication channels;
- (b) promptly update contact information where changes occur;
- (c) ensure that communications from PRYME are not blocked by spam filters or other technical settings; and
- (d) promptly notify PRYME if access to registered communication channels has been lost or compromised.

13.6 Electronic Records

PRYME may maintain electronic records relating to:

- (a) Account registration;
- (b) login activity;
- (c) document submissions;
- (d) Eligibility Estimates;
- (e) communications;
- (f) application history;
- (g) consent records;
- (h) audit logs;
- (i) grievance records; and
- (j) other operational activities relating to the Services.

Such records may be retained in accordance with applicable law and PRYME's data retention practices.

13.7 Security of Communications

While PRYME implements reasonable security measures, electronic communications may be subject to delays, interception, corruption, unauthorised access, or technical failures beyond the Company's reasonable control.

Users acknowledge these inherent risks associated with electronic communication and agree to exercise appropriate caution when accessing or responding to communications.

13.8 Continued Consent

The User's continued use of the Platform following receipt of notices regarding amendments, feature updates, operational changes, or revised policies shall constitute acceptance of such changes where acceptance is permitted to be inferred under applicable law.

13.9 Preservation of Records

PRYME may preserve electronic communications and transaction records for purposes including regulatory compliance, audit requirements, dispute resolution, fraud prevention, enforcement of contractual rights, cybersecurity investigations, and defence of legal claims.

13.10 Survival

The provisions of this Article shall survive termination of the User's Account to the extent necessary for evidentiary purposes, legal compliance, dispute resolution, and enforcement of the rights and obligations of the Parties.

PART 14

PLATFORM MODIFICATIONS, FUTURE SERVICES, BETA FEATURES, AND SERVICE AVAILABILITY

14.1 Continuous Improvement of the Platform

PRYME is committed to continuously improving the Platform and enhancing the Services offered to Users. In furtherance of this objective, PRYME may from time to time introduce new features, discontinue existing functionality, redesign user interfaces, improve technological infrastructure, implement security enhancements, modify workflows, or expand the range of financial products and services available through the Platform.

The User acknowledges that continuous development is an essential characteristic of a technology platform and agrees that modifications to the Platform shall not, by themselves, constitute a breach of these Terms.

14.2 Right to Modify Services

PRYME reserves the right, at its sole discretion, to:

- (a) introduce new services;
- (b) modify existing services;
- (c) suspend specific features;
- (d) discontinue any feature or service;
- (e) change eligibility requirements for particular services;
- (f) revise operational workflows;
- (g) improve or redesign the Platform interface;
- (h) modify application procedures;
- (i) enhance security protocols; and
- (j) introduce new technological capabilities.

Where reasonably practicable, material changes affecting Users shall be communicated through appropriate channels.

14.3 Future Financial Products

The User acknowledges that PRYME may expand its business to facilitate additional financial products and technology-enabled services, including but not limited to:

- (a) insurance products;
- (b) credit cards;
- (c) business loans;
- (d) gold loans;
- (e) vehicle loans;
- (f) education loans;
- (g) fixed deposits;
- (h) investment products;
- (i) wealth management tools;
- (j) financial planning services;
- (k) Account Aggregator integrations;
- (l) digital identity verification services;
- (m) artificial intelligence-powered financial assistance; and
- (n) other lawful financial technology services.

Such services may be governed by additional product-specific agreements.

14.4 Beta, Pilot and Experimental Features

PRYME may introduce certain features on a beta, pilot, trial, preview, or experimental basis. Such features may:

- (a) contain defects;
- (b) undergo frequent modifications;
- (c) be subject to limited availability;
- (d) be discontinued without notice;
- (e) produce experimental results; or
- (f) require additional user feedback.

The User understands that participation in beta features is voluntary and that such features are provided for evaluation and improvement purposes.

14.5 Artificial Intelligence and Automated Systems

PRYME may utilise artificial intelligence, machine learning, automation, or similar technologies to assist Users in navigating the Platform, understanding financial products, obtaining indicative eligibility assessments, or receiving general informational assistance.

The User expressly acknowledges that:

- (a) AI-generated outputs are informational in nature;
- (b) automated recommendations are generated using available data and predefined methodologies;
- (c) AI outputs should not be interpreted as financial, legal, tax, investment, or professional advice;
- (d) Users remain responsible for independently evaluating all financial decisions; and
- (e) lending decisions remain exclusively with participating lenders.

14.6 Platform Availability

PRYME shall use commercially reasonable efforts to maintain the availability and performance of the Platform.

However, the User acknowledges that temporary interruptions may occur due to:

- (a) scheduled maintenance;
- (b) emergency maintenance;
- (c) software updates;
- (d) security upgrades;
- (e) internet failures;
- (f) telecommunications issues;
- (g) cyber incidents;
- (h) hardware failures;
- (i) third-party service interruptions; or
- (j) circumstances beyond PRYME's reasonable control.

Temporary interruptions shall not constitute a breach of these Terms.

14.7 Suspension of Services

PRYME may temporarily suspend all or part of the Platform where reasonably necessary for:

- (a) maintenance;
- (b) security investigations;
- (c) regulatory compliance;
- (d) fraud prevention;
- (e) implementation of technological improvements;
- (f) migration of systems;
- (g) disaster recovery procedures; or
- (h) protection of Users or participating lenders.

14.8 Compatibility

PRYME does not warrant that the Platform shall remain compatible with every browser, operating system, hardware configuration, software environment, or future technological standard.

Users remain responsible for maintaining suitable devices and internet connectivity required to access the Platform.

14.9 Service Expansion

The introduction of new services shall not obligate PRYME to continue offering any existing service indefinitely.

PRYME may, subject to applicable law, expand, reduce, replace, or discontinue any Service according to commercial, operational, technological, or regulatory requirements.

14.10 Survival

This Article shall survive suspension or termination of the User's Account to the extent necessary for interpretation of future service rights and obligations.

PART 15

REGULATORY COMPLIANCE, FRAUD PREVENTION, RISK MANAGEMENT, AND COOPERATION WITH AUTHORITIES

15.1 Commitment to Compliance

PRYME is committed to conducting its operations in accordance with all applicable laws, regulations, governmental directions, judicial orders, and regulatory requirements applicable to its business.

The Company may implement policies, procedures, technological controls, and operational safeguards to ensure continued compliance with applicable legal obligations.

15.2 User Compliance

The User agrees to comply with all applicable laws while accessing or using the Platform.

The User shall not use the Platform for any unlawful purpose or in any manner that could expose PRYME, participating lenders, or other Users to legal or regulatory risk.

15.3 Fraud Prevention Measures

PRYME may implement fraud detection systems designed to identify suspicious activities, including but not limited to:

- (a) submission of false information;
- (b) forged documentation;
- (c) duplicate Accounts;
- (d) identity theft;
- (e) referral abuse;
- (f) unusual transaction patterns;
- (g) automated misuse of the Platform;
- (h) account compromise; or
- (i) other indicators of potentially fraudulent conduct.

The specific methodologies, rules, algorithms, thresholds, and internal procedures used for fraud detection constitute confidential proprietary information of PRYME.

15.4 Temporary Review

Where PRYME reasonably suspects fraudulent or suspicious activity, the Company may temporarily pause processing of an application while conducting an internal review.

During such review, PRYME may request additional documentation or clarification from the User.

Failure to provide reasonably requested information may result in refusal to continue processing the relevant application.

15.5 Cooperation with Authorities

Where required or permitted under applicable law, PRYME may cooperate with:

- (a) courts;
- (b) law enforcement agencies;
- (c) regulatory authorities;
- (d) governmental bodies;
- (e) investigating agencies;
- (f) participating lenders; and
- (g) other competent authorities.

Such cooperation may include the disclosure of information where legally required or otherwise permitted by law.

15.6 Reporting of Fraud

Where PRYME reasonably believes that fraudulent, unlawful, or criminal activity has occurred, the Company reserves the right to report the matter to the appropriate authorities and participating lenders.

Such reporting shall be undertaken in accordance with applicable law and shall not require prior consent from the User where disclosure is legally authorised or required.

15.7 Internal Risk Controls

PRYME may implement operational controls including:

- (a) identity verification;
- (b) document verification;
- (c) device verification;
- (d) communication verification;
- (e) behavioural analysis;
- (f) access controls;
- (g) cybersecurity measures;
- (h) audit logging;
- (i) transaction monitoring; and
- (j) other risk management procedures considered reasonably necessary.

15.8 Regulatory Changes

If any applicable law, governmental notification, judicial decision, or regulatory direction requires modification of the Platform or the Services, PRYME may immediately amend its operational procedures, technical architecture, policies, or these Terms to ensure compliance.

The User agrees that continued use of the Platform following such changes shall be subject to the revised legal and regulatory framework.

15.9 Reservation of Rights

Nothing contained in these Terms shall limit PRYME's right to take any action reasonably necessary to:

- (a) protect the integrity of the Platform;
- (b) safeguard Users;
- (c) comply with legal obligations;
- (d) prevent financial crime;
- (e) protect participating lenders;
- (f) preserve evidence;
- (g) defend legal proceedings; or
- (h) enforce its contractual rights.

15.10 Survival

The rights, powers, obligations, and protections contained in this Article shall survive suspension, termination, deletion of the User's Account, or expiry of these Terms to the extent necessary for legal compliance, fraud investigations, regulatory proceedings, enforcement of rights, and defence of legal claims.

PART 16

GOVERNING LAW, JURISDICTION, DISPUTE RESOLUTION, AND LEGAL PROCEEDINGS

16.1 Governing Law

These Terms, together with all policies incorporated by reference, shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the Republic of India, without regard to any principles relating to conflict of laws.

The rights and obligations of the Parties shall be interpreted in a manner consistent with applicable Indian legislation, judicial precedents, governmental notifications, and regulatory directions in force from time to time.

16.2 Good Faith Resolution

PRYME believes that most concerns can be resolved efficiently through open communication. Accordingly, before initiating any legal proceedings against PRYME, the User agrees to first submit the grievance through the grievance redressal mechanism established by the Company. The Parties shall make reasonable efforts to resolve the dispute amicably and in good faith. Nothing contained in this Clause shall restrict any statutory remedy available to either Party under applicable law.

16.3 Internal Resolution Period

Upon receipt of a grievance, PRYME shall endeavour to investigate and resolve the matter in accordance with the timelines specified in these Terms or any applicable policy.

During this period, both Parties shall cooperate in good faith by providing information, clarification, and supporting documents reasonably necessary for resolution.

16.4 Arbitration

Any dispute, controversy, or claim arising out of or relating to these Terms, the Platform, or the Services, including any question regarding their existence, validity, interpretation, performance, breach, or termination, shall be referred to and finally resolved by arbitration in accordance with the provisions of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996, as amended from time to time.

The arbitration shall be conducted by a sole arbitrator appointed by mutual agreement of both the Parties. The seat and venue of arbitration shall be Indore, Madhya Pradesh, India. The proceedings shall be conducted in the English language. The arbitral award shall be final and binding on the Parties.

16.5 Exclusive Jurisdiction

Subject to Clause 16.4 (Arbitration), the courts at Indore, Madhya Pradesh shall have exclusive jurisdiction over matters relating to arbitration, enforcement of awards, interim relief, or any matter for which court intervention is permitted under applicable law. The User irrevocably submits to the jurisdiction of such courts and waives any objection based upon venue or forum convenience to the extent permitted by law.

16.6 Injunctive Relief

The User acknowledges that any unauthorised use of PRYME's Intellectual Property, confidential information, proprietary technology, software, databases, algorithms, or trade secrets may cause irreparable harm for which monetary damages alone may not be an adequate remedy.

Accordingly, PRYME shall be entitled to seek temporary, interim, or permanent injunctive relief, specific performance, or other equitable remedies before any competent court, in addition to any other remedies available under applicable law.

16.7 Continuing Obligations

The existence of any dispute shall not relieve either Party from performing obligations that are not directly affected by the dispute.

Where reasonably possible, the Parties shall continue to comply with their respective obligations while the dispute remains pending.

16.8 Limitation Period

Nothing contained in these Terms shall extend, reduce, or otherwise modify any statutory limitation period prescribed under applicable law.

16.9 Costs

Each Party shall ordinarily bear its own legal costs and expenses relating to any dispute unless otherwise determined by a competent court or agreed in writing between the Parties.

Nothing in this Clause shall restrict PRYME from recovering costs where expressly permitted under these Terms or applicable law.

16.10 Survival

This Article shall survive suspension, termination, deletion of the User's Account, discontinuation of the Platform, and expiry of these Terms.

PART 17

FORCE MAJEURE

17.1 Definition

PRYME shall not be liable for any delay, interruption, deficiency in performance, failure to perform, or inability to perform any obligation under these Terms where such delay or failure arises from circumstances beyond its reasonable control.

Such events shall constitute a Force Majeure Event.

17.2 Force Majeure Events

Force Majeure Events include, without limitation:

- (a) natural disasters including earthquakes, floods, cyclones, storms, lightning, droughts, landslides, and other natural calamities;
- (b) fires, explosions, accidents, structural failures, or industrial incidents;
- (c) epidemics, pandemics, public health emergencies, quarantines, or similar events;
- (d) acts of war, armed conflict, invasion, terrorism, civil unrest, riots, rebellion, or sabotage;
- (e) strikes, lockouts, labour disputes, or industrial action not directly attributable to PRYME;
- (f) governmental actions, regulatory restrictions, court orders, embargoes, sanctions, or changes in applicable law;
- (g) nationwide or regional internet outages;
- (h) disruption of telecommunications networks;
- (i) failures affecting cloud infrastructure, data centres, hosting providers, internet service providers, or utility providers;
- (j) widespread cybersecurity incidents, distributed denial-of-service attacks, ransomware attacks, or other malicious cyber events;
- (k) prolonged power failures;
- (l) failures of third-party systems that are beyond the reasonable control of PRYME; and
- (m) any other event that could not reasonably have been anticipated or prevented through the exercise of reasonable care.

17.3 Suspension of Obligations

During the continuance of a Force Majeure Event, PRYME's affected obligations under these Terms shall be suspended only to the extent and for the duration reasonably necessary to address the effects of the Force Majeure Event.

PRYME shall use commercially reasonable efforts to restore normal operations as soon as practicable.

17.4 No Liability

To the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, PRYME shall not be liable for any loss, delay, inconvenience, business interruption, data delay, missed opportunity, or other consequence arising solely from a Force Majeure Event.

17.5 Mitigation

PRYME shall make reasonable efforts to mitigate the impact of a Force Majeure Event by implementing appropriate business continuity measures, disaster recovery procedures, alternative communication mechanisms, or temporary operational arrangements where reasonably practicable.

Nothing in this Clause shall require PRYME to incur unreasonable expenditure or assume disproportionate commercial risk.

17.6 Notice

Where reasonably practicable, PRYME may notify Users through appropriate communication channels regarding significant Force Majeure Events that materially affect the availability or functioning of the Platform.

Failure to provide such notice shall not prejudice PRYME's rights under this Article where circumstances make prior or timely notice impracticable.

17.7 Resumption of Services

Upon cessation of the Force Majeure Event, PRYME shall endeavour to resume affected Services within a commercially reasonable period, taking into account operational, technical, legal, and security considerations.

17.8 Survival

The provisions of this Article shall survive termination of these Terms and shall continue to apply in relation to any Force Majeure Event occurring during the subsistence of the contractual relationship between the Parties.

PART 18

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

18.1 Entire Agreement

These Terms, together with the Privacy Policy, Cookie Policy, Disclaimer, Consent and Communication Policy, and any additional policies, product-specific terms, notices, or agreements expressly incorporated by reference, constitute the entire agreement between the User and PRYME concerning access to and use of the Platform.

These Terms supersede all prior discussions, understandings, negotiations, representations, communications, or agreements, whether oral or written, relating to the subject matter herein. Nothing contained in this Clause shall supersede any separate engagement letter, loan application documentation, product-specific agreement, or other written agreement executed between the User and PRYME for a specific service, to the extent such agreement expressly provides otherwise.

18.2 Amendments

PRYME reserves the right to amend, modify, update, replace, supplement, or revise these Terms from time to time in response to:

- (a) changes in applicable law;
- (b) regulatory requirements;
- (c) judicial decisions;
- (d) operational improvements;
- (e) technological developments;
- (f) introduction of new products or services;
- (g) security enhancements;
- (h) changes in business practices; or
- (i) any other legitimate commercial or legal reason.

Material amendments shall become effective upon publication on the Platform or upon communication through any authorised communication channel, unless a different effective date is expressly specified.

Continued access to or use of the Platform after the effective date of any amendment shall constitute acceptance of the revised Terms.

18.3 Assignment

PRYME may assign, transfer, novate, delegate, or otherwise dispose of its rights, obligations, or interests under these Terms to any affiliate, successor entity, purchaser, acquirer, or other lawful person in connection with a merger, acquisition, restructuring, business transfer, sale of assets, or similar corporate transaction.

The User shall not assign, transfer, delegate, sublicense, or otherwise dispose of any rights or obligations under these Terms without the prior written consent of PRYME.

Any unauthorised assignment by the User shall be void to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law.

18.4 No Waiver

No failure, delay, omission, or partial exercise by PRYME of any right, remedy, power, or privilege under these Terms shall constitute or be construed as a waiver of that right.

Any waiver shall be valid only if made expressly in writing by an authorised representative of PRYME.

A waiver of any breach shall not constitute a waiver of any preceding, continuing, or subsequent breach.

18.5 Severability

If any provision of these Terms is held by a court or other competent authority to be invalid, illegal, unenforceable, or void, such provision shall be enforced to the maximum extent permissible under applicable law.

The remaining provisions shall continue in full force and effect and shall not be affected by the invalidity or unenforceability of any individual provision.

Where reasonably possible, the invalid provision shall be replaced by a lawful provision that most closely reflects the original commercial intent.

18.6 Independent Relationship

Nothing contained in these Terms shall be construed as creating any partnership, joint venture, agency, employment relationship, franchise, fiduciary relationship, or other legal association between PRYME and the User.

The relationship between the Parties shall at all times remain that of independent contracting parties.

18.7 Interpretation

Headings, titles, and formatting used in these Terms are included solely for convenience of reference and shall not affect interpretation.

The words "including", "includes", and "such as" shall be deemed to mean "including without limitation."

References to statutes shall include amendments, re-enactments, subordinate legislation, and successor legislation unless the context otherwise requires.

18.8 Rights and Remedies

The rights, powers, and remedies available to PRYME under these Terms are cumulative and are in addition to any rights or remedies available under applicable law.

The exercise of one right or remedy shall not preclude the exercise of any other right or remedy.

18.9 Language

These Terms have been drafted in the English language.

Where PRYME provides translations for convenience, the English version shall prevail in the event of any inconsistency, ambiguity, conflict, or discrepancy.

18.10 Survival

All provisions which by their nature are intended to survive termination, including but not limited to provisions relating to intellectual property, confidentiality, limitation of liability, indemnification, dispute resolution, governing law, data retention, regulatory compliance, and payment obligations (where applicable), shall survive termination, suspension, or expiry of these Terms.

PART 19

NOTICES, OFFICIAL COMMUNICATIONS, AND CONTACT INFORMATION

19.1 Official Communications

PRYME may issue notices, disclosures, alerts, updates, announcements, and other communications relating to the Platform or the Services through one or more authorised communication channels.

Such communications may include operational notices, legal notices, regulatory disclosures, policy updates, security alerts, maintenance notifications, promotional communications (where consent has been provided), and other information reasonably connected with the Services.

19.2 Modes of Communication

Without limitation, PRYME may communicate with the User through:

- (a) email;
- (b) SMS;
- (c) WhatsApp;
- (d) notifications displayed within the User's Account;
- (e) notifications displayed on the Platform;
- (f) website announcements;
- (g) telephone calls where appropriate; or
- (h) any other lawful communication channel adopted by PRYME.

19.3 Deemed Delivery

Unless otherwise required by applicable law, any notice or communication issued by PRYME shall be deemed duly delivered:

- (a) in the case of email, upon transmission to the registered email address;
- (b) in the case of SMS or messaging services, upon successful transmission to the registered mobile number;
- (c) in the case of dashboard or website notices, upon publication on the Platform;
- (d) in the case of postal communication, upon delivery in accordance with the records of the relevant postal or courier service.

The User acknowledges that failure to read or access a communication shall not invalidate its legal effect where it has been duly transmitted.

19.4 User Responsibility

The User agrees to:

- (a) maintain accurate and up-to-date contact information;
- (b) promptly notify PRYME of any change to the registered mobile number, email address, or correspondence details;
- (c) regularly review communications received from PRYME; and
- (d) ensure that communications from PRYME are not intentionally blocked or filtered.

PRYME shall not be responsible for any consequence arising from the User's failure to maintain accurate contact information.

19.5 Legal Notices to PRYME

Any legal notice intended for PRYME shall be addressed to the registered office of the Company or such other address as may be notified by PRYME from time to time.

Where PRYME specifies an email address for legal correspondence, notices transmitted through such authorised email address shall also be accepted, subject to applicable law.

19.6 Company Contact Information

As of the Effective Date of these Terms, the Company's contact details are:

GOPRYME FINTECH PRIVATE LIMITED

Registered Office: 204, Ranjeet Hanuman Main Road, Near BATA Showroom, Mhow Naka, Indore, Madhya Pradesh, India

Website: www.prymeloans.in

Customer Support Email: contact@gopryme.in

Customer Support Number: +91 92432 94291

PRYME reserves the right to update the above contact details from time to time. Updated contact information published on the Platform shall supersede previously published details.

19.7 Business Communications

Communications exchanged between the User and PRYME for purposes relating to applications, customer support, grievances, document verification, regulatory compliance, or operational matters may be retained by PRYME as business records in accordance with applicable law and the Company's data retention practices.

19.8 Survival

The provisions of this Article shall survive termination of these Terms to the extent necessary for the delivery of legal notices, regulatory communications, enforcement of rights, defence of legal proceedings, or compliance with applicable law.

PART 20

GRIEVANCE OFFICER, REGULATORY INFORMATION, STATUTORY DISCLOSURES, AND COMPLIANCE

20.1 Commitment to Transparency

PRYME is committed to conducting its business with transparency, integrity, accountability, and fairness. The Company endeavours to maintain appropriate governance standards, establish responsible customer support mechanisms, and comply with all applicable legal and regulatory requirements governing its operations.

The Company recognises that maintaining customer trust requires timely communication, responsible handling of grievances, protection of personal information, and continuous improvement of its operational processes.

20.2 Nature of the Platform

The User expressly acknowledges that PRYME operates as a technology-enabled loan comparison, eligibility estimation, application facilitation, and loan aggregation platform.

PRYME is not:

- (a) a bank;
- (b) a Non-Banking Financial Company (NBFC);
- (c) a housing finance company;
- (d) a money lender;
- (e) a deposit-taking institution;
- (f) an insurer;
- (g) an investment adviser;
- (h) a stock broker;
- (i) a mutual fund distributor unless separately authorised in the future; or
- (j) a financial institution empowered to independently approve or reject loan applications.

All lending decisions remain exclusively with the respective participating lender.

20.3 Regulatory Compliance

PRYME shall make reasonable efforts to conduct its business in accordance with applicable laws and regulatory requirements relevant to the services provided by the Company.

Where any applicable law, governmental notification, regulatory direction, or judicial order requires modification of the Platform, operational procedures, customer processes, or legal documentation, PRYME reserves the right to implement such modifications as reasonably necessary to maintain compliance.

20.4 Grievance Officer

The Company shall designate a Grievance Officer responsible for overseeing the receipt, acknowledgement, review, and resolution of customer grievances relating to the Platform and the Services.

As of the Effective Date of these Terms, the designated Grievance Officer is:

Name: Aadesh Kothari, aadesh.k@gopryme.in, +91 92432 94291.

The Company reserves the right to appoint another individual as the Grievance Officer at any time.

Any such appointment or change shall become effective upon publication on the Platform without requiring amendment of these Terms.

20.4A Nodal Officer for Digital Lending and Data Grievances

In addition to the Grievance Officer designated under Clause 20.4, PRYME shall designate a nodal officer responsible for complaints specifically relating to digital lending facilitation and the processing of personal data under the Digital Personal Data Protection Act, 2023. The contact details of such nodal officer shall be published on the Platform and included in the Key Fact Statement issued in respect of every loan facilitated through the Platform, and may be updated by PRYME from time to time without requiring amendment of these Terms.

20.5 Scope of the Grievance Officer

The Grievance Officer may, subject to applicable law and internal procedures:

- (a) acknowledge customer grievances;
- (b) coordinate internal investigation;
- (c) seek clarification from Users;
- (d) coordinate with relevant departments;
- (e) issue responses on behalf of the Company;
- (f) recommend corrective action where appropriate;
- (g) maintain grievance records; and
- (h) perform such other responsibilities as may reasonably be assigned by the Company.

20.6 Matters Outside the Scope of PRYME

The Grievance Officer shall not possess authority to:

- (a) overturn lending decisions made by participating lenders;
- (b) compel a lender to approve an application;
- (c) modify contractual terms offered by a lender;
- (d) interfere with a lender's underwriting process;
- (e) determine repayment obligations under a loan agreement; or
- (f) resolve disputes arising solely under agreements executed directly between the User and a participating lender.

20.7 Statutory Compliance

Nothing contained in these Terms shall be interpreted as limiting any statutory rights available to Users under applicable law.

Similarly, nothing contained herein shall require PRYME to undertake any activity that would be contrary to applicable law or regulatory requirements.

20.8 Preservation of Records

PRYME may preserve grievance records, correspondence, investigation materials, customer communications, and supporting documentation for such period as may be reasonably necessary for:

- (a) legal compliance;
- (b) regulatory requirements;
- (c) audit purposes;
- (d) dispute resolution;
- (e) fraud prevention;
- (f) enforcement of contractual rights; or
- (g) defence of legal proceedings.

20.9 Future Regulatory Changes

The User acknowledges that the financial technology sector is subject to continuous regulatory evolution.

Accordingly, PRYME may revise its processes, customer journeys, technological architecture, documentation requirements, and legal policies to comply with future legislative or regulatory developments.

20.10 Survival

This Article shall survive termination, suspension, deletion of the User's Account, or expiry of these Terms to the extent necessary for regulatory compliance, grievance resolution, legal proceedings, or enforcement of the Company's rights.

PART 21

FINAL ACKNOWLEDGEMENT, ACCEPTANCE OF TERMS, AND EFFECTIVE PROVISIONS

21.1 User Acknowledgement

By accessing or using the Platform, the User acknowledges that the User has carefully read, understood, and voluntarily accepted these Terms in their entirety.

The User further acknowledges that these Terms have been presented in a manner reasonably intended to explain the legal relationship between the User and PRYME and that the User has had sufficient opportunity to review the Terms before accepting them.

21.2 Acceptance

Acceptance of these Terms may occur through any legally recognised electronic or digital method, including but not limited to:

- (a) clicking an "I Agree" or similar acceptance button;
- (b) selecting an acceptance checkbox;
- (c) OTP verification;
- (d) digital authentication;
- (e) electronic signature;
- (f) registration of an Account;
- (g) submission of an application; or
- (h) continued use of the Platform where acceptance may lawfully be inferred.

Such acceptance shall constitute a legally binding agreement between the User and PRYME.

21.3 Effective Date

These Terms shall become effective on the Effective Date specified at the beginning of this document or, where no Effective Date is specified, on the date they are first published on the Platform.

For each individual User, these Terms shall become binding upon the earliest of:

- (a) creation of an Account;
- (b) submission of information through the Platform;
- (c) initiation of a loan application;
- (d) acceptance through electronic means; or
- (e) continued use of the Platform following publication of these Terms.

21.4 Continued Use

The User acknowledges that continued access to or use of the Platform following publication of revised Terms shall constitute acceptance of such revised Terms to the extent permitted by applicable law.

Where applicable law requires express consent for a particular amendment, PRYME shall obtain such consent through appropriate means.

21.5 Independent Decision

The User confirms that use of the Platform and any decision to apply for a financial product is made voluntarily and based upon the User's own independent judgment.

The User acknowledges that PRYME has not guaranteed approval of any financial product or represented that any participating lender will offer particular commercial terms.

21.6 Entire Understanding

The User confirms that no oral statement, marketing material, advertisement, social media communication, customer support interaction, demonstration, presentation, or informal communication shall modify these Terms unless expressly incorporated into a written agreement authorised by PRYME.

21.7 Reservation of Rights

Any right, power, privilege, remedy, or protection not expressly granted to the User under these Terms shall remain reserved by PRYME.

Failure by PRYME to exercise any right under these Terms shall not constitute a waiver of that right.

21.8 Severability of Acceptance

If any provision relating to acceptance or formation of this Agreement is held unenforceable by a competent court, the remaining provisions shall continue in full force and effect to the maximum extent permitted by applicable law.

21.9 Contact for Legal Queries

Questions regarding these Terms may be addressed to the Company's official contact channels published on the Platform.

The Company may update such contact details from time to time without requiring amendment of these Terms.

21.10 Closing Statement

PRYME has been established with the objective of helping borrowers make informed financial decisions through greater transparency, privacy, technological innovation, and responsible customer support.

By accepting these Terms and using the Platform, the User acknowledges the respective rights and responsibilities of both Parties and agrees to use the Platform responsibly, lawfully, and in good faith.

These Terms constitute a legally binding agreement between the User and GOPRYME FINTECH PRIVATE LIMITED and shall remain in force until terminated in accordance with their provisions.
